1. Who We Are and What This Policy Covers

FIT Frameworks System, LLC ("FIT Frameworks," "we," "us," or "our") is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Georgia. We provide business development programs, educational materials, assessments, onboarding tools, and related products and services for business owners (collectively, the "Services").

This Privacy Policy (this "Policy") describes how we collect, use, disclose and protect personal information in connection with the Services, including but not limited to our websites, landing and funnel pages, surveys, questionnaires, quizzes, assessments, applications, forms, scheduling pages, email communications and programs. By accessing or using the Services, you acknowledge that you have read and understand this Policy.

2. Information We Collect

a. Information you provide to us

- Identifying information. Your name, business name, email address, telephone number and mailing address, to the extent you provide them.
- Survey, form and questionnaire responses. The answers you submit through our surveys, forms, questionnaires and assessments, which may include information about your business, its products and services, pricing, customers, operations, brand and communications.
- Application information. Information you submit when applying to or inquiring about a program.
- Transaction information. Records of purchases, registrations and enrollments. Payment card details are collected and processed by our third party payment processor. We do not collect or store complete payment card numbers.
- Communications. The content of emails, messages, support requests and other correspondence you send to us, and our responses.
- Scheduling information. Information you provide when booking a call or session, including the date, time and any details you choose to share.
- Program sessions. We do not record sessions or create automated transcripts. We may keep written notes to support your participation, commitments and progress. Where other participants are present, they can hear or see information you choose to share. We ask participants to respect confidentiality and not to record sessions, but we cannot guarantee their actions.

b. Information collected automatically

- Device and usage information. Internet protocol (IP) address, browser type and version, operating system, device identifiers, referring and exit pages, pages viewed, links selected, and the dates and times of your visits, depending on the tools in use at the time.
- Tracking technologies. Cookies, pixels and similar technologies may collect information about visits to our pages, whether emails are opened, and which links are clicked, as described in Section 5.

You choose what to submit, and you remain responsible for information you submit about other people. We ask that you not include sensitive personal information about yourself or others, including government identification numbers, financial account numbers or health information. When sharing examples involving customers, team members or other people, use made-up names and leave out details that could identify them.

c. Information received from third parties

- Analytics and advertising platforms may provide us with information about how visitors reached or interacted with our pages, in aggregated, de-identified or individual form.
- Service providers may provide us with delivery, engagement and transaction information relating to the Services.

3. How We Use Your Information

We use the information described above for the following purposes:

- To deliver the materials, programs and services you requested
- To review applications and onboard new participants
- To process payments, registrations and refunds
- To send you emails regarding our programs, resources and offers
- To respond to your questions and provide support
- To deliver, measure and improve our advertising

- To operate, evaluate and improve the Services, including our pages, questions and program materials
- To detect, prevent and address fraud, abuse, security incidents and other harmful activity
- To comply with applicable law and to establish, exercise or defend legal claims

4. How We Share Your Information

We do not sell your personal information for money. We disclose personal information only in the following circumstances:

- Service providers. Vendors that perform services on our behalf, such as customer relationship management and marketing platforms, email delivery, document and file storage, video conferencing, scheduling and payment processing. These providers receive information as necessary to provide the relevant service, under terms requiring them to protect it.
- Professional advisors. Attorneys, accountants, bookkeepers, auditors and insurers, in connection with the operation of our business.
- Other participants. Where the Services bring you together with other participants, information you choose to share in that setting is visible to them, as described in Section 2.
- Analytics and advertising partners. As described in Section 5.
- Legal requirements. Where required by applicable law, regulation, legal process or enforceable governmental request, including a valid subpoena or court order.
- Protection of rights and safety. Where we believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect the rights, property or safety of FIT Frameworks, our participants or others, or to investigate fraud or a violation of our Terms.
- Business transfers. In connection with a merger, acquisition, financing, reorganization or sale of assets, in which case we will seek to ensure the recipient remains bound by the commitments in this Policy, and will provide notice where practicable before your information becomes subject to a different policy.

- With your consent. For any other purpose disclosed to you at the time, including the use of your results, feedback or testimonial as an example, which we will do only with your express permission.

5. Cookies, Analytics and Advertising

Cookies are small data files placed on your device that help websites function and remember your visit. We and our partners use cookies, web beacons, pixels, tags and similar technologies on our websites and pages, and in the email messages we send.

These technologies currently include the analytics features built into our customer relationship management and funnel platform. We may also use Google Analytics, the Meta (Facebook) advertising pixel and comparable analytics or advertising technologies in order to measure the performance of our pages and to deliver and measure advertising.

When you first visit our pages, a banner tells you that we use cookies and other tracking technologies. You may block or delete cookies through your browser settings, although certain features of our pages may not function properly if you do so.

Some of these technologies allow third parties to collect information about your online activities over time and across different websites and services. Certain state privacy laws define such disclosures broadly, and may characterize them as a "sale" or "sharing" of personal information even where no money is exchanged. We do not exchange your personal information for money.

6. Do Not Track Signals

Some web browsers offer a "Do Not Track" feature that signals a preference not to have your online activity tracked. There is at present no uniform industry or legal standard for recognizing or honoring these signals. We do not currently respond to Do Not Track browser signals. You may block or delete cookies through your browser settings.

Global Privacy Control ("GPC") is a more recent signal that communicates an opt-out preference to the websites you visit. We do not currently respond to GPC signals. Where applicable law requires us to honor such a signal, we will do so.

7. Email Communications

Every marketing email we send includes a link allowing you to unsubscribe. If you unsubscribe, we will stop sending you marketing email. We may continue to send you messages whose primary purpose is transactional or administrative, such as a receipt, a scheduling confirmation, or information about a program in which you are enrolled. Where the primary purpose of a message is commercial, we treat it as marketing and honor your unsubscribe request.

8. Text Messages

We send text messages only to individuals who have provided a telephone number and affirmatively consented to receive them. Consent is requested separately for two categories of messages, and you may consent to either, both or neither:

- Service messages. Messages relating to an inquiry, application, enrollment, appointment, scheduling or the administration of a program in which you are participating.
- Marketing messages. Messages regarding our programs, offers and promotions.

Consent to receive marketing text messages is not a condition of purchasing any product or service.

Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply. Reply HELP for assistance or STOP to opt out. You may revoke your consent at any time by replying STOP, or by any other reasonable means, including by emailing us at info@FITFrameworks.com, and we will honor the request within the period required by applicable law.

We do not sell or share telephone numbers or text messaging consent with third parties for their own marketing purposes. Telephone numbers are disclosed to our service providers only as necessary to deliver the messages described above, as set out in Section 4.

Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

9. Data Security and Retention

We use established third party platforms and apply administrative and technical measures intended to protect personal information, including limiting internal access to those who need it. No method of transmission or storage is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to provide the Services, operate our business, resolve disputes, enforce our agreements and comply with our legal obligations, after which we take steps to delete or de-identify it.

Where required by applicable law, we will notify affected individuals and the appropriate authorities of a breach of security involving personal information, without unreasonable delay.

10. Your Privacy Rights

Subject to applicable law, you may request that we:

- Confirm whether we process personal information about you and provide access to it
- Correct inaccurate personal information
- Delete personal information we hold about you
- Provide a copy of your personal information in a portable format
- Stop sending you marketing communications

- Opt out of the sale or sharing of your personal information, or of its use for targeted advertising, where applicable law provides that right

Where we use advertising technologies, you may limit them through your browser settings and through the opt-out tools the advertising platforms themselves provide. To exercise any of these rights, email us at info@FITFrameworks.com. We may ask you to verify your identity before responding. We will respond within the time required by applicable law. We will not discriminate against you for exercising any privacy right. We may decline a request, in whole or in part, where an exception applies under applicable law, including where we are required to retain the information for tax, accounting or legal purposes, or where a request is manifestly unfounded or excessive.

Depending on your state of residence, you may have additional rights under applicable law. If we decline a request and you wish to appeal, write to us by email or at the postal address in the Contact section, marked "Privacy Appeal," and include a copy of our response and the reason you believe it was in error. We will review the decision and respond.

11. Children's Privacy

The Services are intended for business owners and are not directed to children. We do not knowingly collect personal information from any individual under eighteen (18) years of age. If you believe a minor has provided personal information to us, contact us at info@FITFrameworks.com and we will take steps to verify and delete it.

12. Geographic Scope

The Services are intended for access and use within the United States only. By accessing or using the Services, you affirm that you are located in and a resident of the United States. If you access the Services from outside the United States, your use is unauthorized and at your own risk.

13. Third-Party Services and Links

This section concerns services you choose to use independently of us. It does not apply to the service providers described in Section 4. Those providers process information on our behalf and under our instruction, and our collection and sharing of information through them is covered by this Policy.

The Services may link to, or suggest that you use, websites, platforms and tools operated independently by others, including artificial intelligence tools into which you may choose to enter information about your business. Where you use such a tool under your own account, you do so subject to that provider's own privacy policy and terms, which we encourage you to read. We do not control those services and are not responsible for their privacy or security practices, or for information you submit to them.

14. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Policy from time to time. When we do, we will revise the effective date at the top of this page. If we make material changes to how we collect, use or disclose personal information, we will provide notice through the Services or by email, and will obtain consent where required by applicable law.

1. Acceptance of These Terms

These Terms and Conditions (these "Terms") are a binding agreement between you and FIT Frameworks System, LLC ("FIT Frameworks," "we," "us," or "our"), a limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of Georgia.

These Terms govern your access to and use of our websites, landing and funnel pages, surveys, questionnaires, assessments, forms, scheduling pages, email communications, educational materials, programs and related products and services, including but not limited to any of the foregoing that we may offer in the future (collectively, the "Services").

By accessing or using the Services, you agree to be bound by these Terms and by our Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, do not access or use the Services.

2. Who May Use the Services

The Services are intended for business owners and other adults aged eighteen (18) or older, located in the United States. By accessing or using the Services, you represent that you are at least eighteen (18) years of age and have the legal capacity to enter into these Terms.

If you accept these Terms on behalf of a company or other entity, you represent that you have authority to bind that entity, and "you" refers to that entity.

3. Privacy

Our collection and use of personal information in connection with the Services is described in our Privacy Policy, which is incorporated into these Terms by reference. To the extent of any conflict between these Terms and the Privacy Policy regarding the handling of personal information, the Privacy Policy controls.

4. Our Content

The Services and all content made available through them, including text, questions, frameworks, curricula, worksheets, templates, assessments, graphics, images, audio, video, software and the selection and arrangement of that content (collectively, the "Content"), are owned by FIT Frameworks or its licensors and are protected by copyright, trademark and other intellectual property laws.

Subject to your compliance with these Terms, we grant you a limited, personal, non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to access and use the Content for your own internal business purposes. Where we provide materials intended for use within your business, such as a document generated from your own responses, you may use and adapt those materials in the operation of your business.

Your submissions. You retain all right, title and interest in the responses, writing samples, business information and other materials you submit through the Services (your "Submissions"). We claim no ownership of your Submissions and no rights in your underlying business information. You grant us a limited, non-exclusive license to host, process and use your Submissions solely to provide the Services you requested, to support your participation, and to evaluate and improve the questions we ask.

Materials generated from your Submissions. Where the Services produce a document, profile or other output from your Submissions, you may use it in the operation and marketing of your business. This expressly includes uploading it to an artificial intelligence tool of your choosing and using the content that tool produces. You may not resell or redistribute our underlying questions, frameworks or templates as a standalone product.

Except as expressly permitted, you may not copy, reproduce, distribute, republish, sell, license, sublicense, publicly display, modify or create derivative works from the Content, or remove any copyright or proprietary notice. All rights not expressly granted are reserved.

5. Our Trademarks

FIT Frameworks, the Founder Execution System™, The RIGHT Foundation™, The PROFIT Framework™, our logos, and our other names, marks and designs (the "Marks") are trademarks or service marks of FIT Frameworks, whether or not registered. You may not use the Marks without our prior written permission, which may be withheld in our sole discretion. Other names and marks appearing in the Services are the property of their respective owners.

6. Acceptable Use

You agree to use the Services only for lawful purposes and in accordance with these Terms. You agree that you will not:

- Impersonate any person or entity, or misrepresent who you are or your authority to act
- Submit information about another person that you do not have that person's permission to share
- Share access credentials, or permit anyone else to use access granted to you
- Resell, redistribute or make available the Content to anyone who has not obtained it from us
- Use the Services to develop, train or improve a competing product or service
- Upload or transmit any virus, malicious code or other material intended to disrupt the Services
- Scrape, harvest, or use automated means to extract Content or data from the Services
- Attempt to gain unauthorized access to the Services or to any account, system or network connected to them
- Use the Services in any manner that violates applicable law or infringes the rights of others

For clarity, invented names, fictional examples and anonymized details are welcome wherever our forms ask you to describe customers, team members or other individuals. Nothing above prohibits them.

7. Purchases and Program Terms

Some Services are offered free of charge and some require payment. Where a purchase is required, the price, what is included, the payment schedule, the term, and any cancellation, refund or renewal conditions are stated at the point of purchase or in a separate agreement provided to you before payment. You should read those terms before you pay.

A particular program, cohort, event or other offer may be governed by its own enrollment agreement or additional terms. Those program-specific terms are in addition to these Terms, and in the event of any conflict between these Terms and a program-specific agreement, the program-specific agreement controls with respect to that program.

Where a purchase involves recurring charges or automatic renewal, that arrangement will be disclosed to you before you pay, and you will be told how to cancel. The cancellation and refund rules for each offer, including whether an offer is nonrefundable, are stated before you purchase, and those rules apply, subject to any rights you have under applicable law. Unless the applicable terms state otherwise, fees are payable in advance.

Payments are processed by a third party payment processor. You agree to provide accurate billing information and to pay all amounts when due. Where a payment is more than 14 days past due, we may charge a late fee of $50 and may suspend access to the Services until your account is current. We will give you notice before suspending access. If you believe a charge is incorrect, please contact us at info@FITFrameworks.com before disputing it with your card issuer or bank, and we will work with you to resolve it. Where a charge is disputed without first contacting us, we may suspend access to the Services and may recover from you any fee charged to us in connection with that dispute, in addition to any amounts you already owe. We may change our prices at any time, and a price change will not affect an offer you have already purchased on stated terms.

Accessing or downloading a free resource does not enroll you in any paid program and creates no payment obligation.

8. Educational Nature of the Services

The Services are informational and educational in nature. FIT Frameworks is not engaged in the provision of legal, tax, accounting, financial, investment, medical, mental health, employment or any other professional advice, and nothing in the Services constitutes such advice.

Any frameworks, assessments, worksheets, calculators, templates, coaching, guidance or recommendations provided through the Services are offered for your consideration.

You are solely responsible for decisions you make and actions you take in your business. We recommend that you consult qualified professional advisors, including as applicable an attorney, accountant or financial advisor, before making significant business decisions.

9. Artificial Intelligence Tools

Certain Services may suggest, describe or support the use of artificial intelligence tools operated by third parties. Where you use such a tool, you do so under your own account and subject to that provider's terms and privacy policy. We do not control those tools and are not responsible for their availability, their terms, their handling of information you submit, or the accuracy, completeness or suitability of anything they produce.

You are responsible for reviewing and verifying output generated by any artificial intelligence tool before relying on it, publishing it, or presenting it to your own customers. You are responsible for what you choose to submit to such a tool, including any information about your business, your customers or other individuals.

10. Third-Party Services and Links

This section concerns services you choose to use independently of us. It does not apply to the platforms we use to deliver the Services to you, such as our customer relationship, scheduling, video conferencing and payment providers. Our obligations to you are not reduced because we deliver the Services through them.

The Services may contain links to, or require you to interact with, websites, platforms and tools operated independently by third parties. We do not control those services, do not endorse them except where expressly stated, and are not responsible for their content, products, services, availability or practices. Your dealings with a third party are solely between you and that third party, and are governed by that party's terms.

11. Your Feedback

If you provide us with suggestions, ideas, comments or other feedback regarding the Services ("Feedback"), you grant us a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free license to use, reproduce, modify and incorporate that Feedback for any purpose, without obligation or compensation to you. Please do not send us Feedback you are not willing to have used on those terms. Feedback does not include your Submissions, which are governed by Section 4, and nothing in this section gives us rights in your business information.

We will use your name, likeness, testimonial or business results in marketing only with your express permission.

12. Disclaimers

THE SERVICES AND ALL CONTENT ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY. TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, FIT FRAMEWORKS DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE AND NON-INFRINGEMENT.

WE DO NOT WARRANT THAT THE SERVICES WILL BE UNINTERRUPTED, TIMELY, SECURE OR ERROR FREE, THAT DEFECTS WILL BE CORRECTED, OR THAT THE SERVICES OR ANY CONTENT ARE ACCURATE, COMPLETE OR CURRENT. YOUR USE OF THE SERVICES IS AT YOUR OWN RISK.

13. Limitation of Liability

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, FIT FRAMEWORKS AND ITS OWNERS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, CONTRACTORS, AGENTS, SUPPLIERS AND LICENSORS WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, EXEMPLARY OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES, OR FOR ANY LOSS OF PROFITS, REVENUE, BUSINESS, DATA, GOODWILL OR ANTICIPATED SAVINGS, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE SERVICES OR THESE TERMS, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY OR ANY OTHER THEORY, AND WHETHER OR NOT WE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, OUR TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THE SERVICES OR THESE TERMS WILL NOT EXCEED THE GREATER OF THE AMOUNT YOU PAID US IN THE TWELVE (12) MONTHS IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE EVENT GIVING RISE TO THE LIABILITY, OR ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS ($100).

Nothing in Sections 12 or 13 limits any express commitment we have made to you in a program-specific agreement, including agreed deliverables or a stated refund guarantee.

Some jurisdictions do not allow certain limitations of liability, so some of the above may not apply to you. In that case, our liability is limited to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

Any claim arising out of or relating to these Terms or the Services must be brought within one (1) year after the claim arises. A claim not brought within that period is permanently barred, except where applicable law does not permit such a limitation.

14. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless FIT Frameworks and its owners, officers, employees, contractors and agents from and against any claims, demands, proceedings, damages, liabilities, losses, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, brought by a third party and arising out of your breach of these Terms, your violation of applicable law, your infringement of the rights of any third party, or information you submitted through the Services about another person without that person's authorization or otherwise in violation of these Terms. This obligation does not apply to the extent a claim arises from our own negligence, willful misconduct or breach of these Terms.

15. Suspension and Termination

We may suspend or terminate your access to the Services, in whole or in part, at any time and at our sole discretion, including where we believe you have violated these Terms or that your conduct is harmful to other participants, to us, or to a third party. We may do so without prior notice.

We also reserve the right to limit or decline the sale of our products and services to any person, geographic region or jurisdiction, on a case-by-case basis and at our sole and exclusive discretion.

Where you have purchased a program, we will not terminate your participation except for your breach of these Terms or of the applicable program agreement, or as that program agreement otherwise expressly permits. If we discontinue a paid program for any other reason, you will receive a refund of amounts paid for the undelivered portion, or the remedy stated in that program agreement.

Where we terminate your access for breach of these Terms, you remain responsible for amounts owed, and refunds are governed by the applicable program terms. Sections that by their nature should survive termination, including Sections 4, 5, 11, 12, 13, 14, 19, 20 and 21, will survive.

16. Geographic Scope

The Services are intended for access and use within the United States only. By accessing or using the Services, you affirm that you are located in and a resident of the United States. If you access the Services from outside the United States, your use is unauthorized and at your own risk.

17. Communications and Text Messages

We may communicate with you by email, by telephone and by text message in connection with the Services, subject to the consents required by applicable law and to the choices you make.

Where you have provided a telephone number and consented to receive text messages, we may send service messages relating to an inquiry, application, enrollment, appointment, scheduling or program administration, and, where you have separately consented, marketing messages regarding our programs, offers and promotions. Consent to receive marketing text messages is not a condition of purchasing any product or service.

Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply, and questions about your wireless plan should be directed to your carrier. Reply HELP for assistance or STOP to opt out. You may also withdraw your consent by any other reasonable means, including by emailing us at info@FITFrameworks.com. An opt-out sent by text that does not use the STOP keyword may not be received by our systems, so please use STOP or contact us by email.

Neither we nor the mobile carriers are liable for delayed, undelivered or misdelivered messages. How we handle the information associated with these communications is described in our Privacy Policy.

18. Changes to These Terms

We may revise these Terms from time to time. When we do, we will post the revised Terms and update the effective date at the top of this page. Changes apply prospectively from the effective date. Where a change materially affects your rights, we will provide notice through the Services or by email. Your continued use of the Services after the effective date constitutes acceptance of the revised Terms. Changes to these Terms do not alter the price, duration, deliverables or refund terms of a program you have already purchased. If you do not agree to the revised Terms, stop using the Services.

19. Governing Law and Venue

These Terms and any dispute arising out of or relating to them or to the Services are governed by the laws of the State of Georgia, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.

You agree that any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to these Terms or the Services will be brought exclusively in the state courts located in Cobb County, Georgia, or in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, and you consent to the personal jurisdiction of those courts. We reserve the right to bring proceedings in any jurisdiction where we believe a violation of these Terms is occurring or originating.

20. Waiver of Jury Trial and Class Action

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, you and FIT Frameworks each waive any right to a trial by jury in any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to these Terms or the Services.

Any such action or proceeding will be conducted only on an individual basis, and not as a plaintiff or class member in any purported class, consolidated or representative proceeding. You and FIT Frameworks each waive any right to participate in a class action or to have claims joined with those of any other person.

If any part of this section is held to be unenforceable, the remainder of these Terms will continue in full force and effect.

21. General Provisions

Entire agreement. These Terms, together with our Privacy Policy and any program-specific agreement or additional terms referenced here, are the entire agreement between you and FIT Frameworks regarding the Services and supersede all prior communications and understandings.

Severability. If any provision of these Terms is held unenforceable, that provision will be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it enforceable, and the remaining provisions will remain in full force.

No waiver. Our failure to enforce any provision is not a waiver of that provision or of any other right. Waivers must be in writing.

Assignment. You may not assign or transfer these Terms without our prior written consent. We may assign these Terms in connection with a merger, acquisition, reorganization or sale of assets.

Force majeure. We are not liable for any delay or failure to perform resulting from causes beyond our reasonable control.

Headings. Section headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation.
