IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR PASCO COUNTY, FLORIDA

TRULIEVE, INC., Plaintiff, v. NATHAN JUREWICZ, Defendant.	Case No. 2025-CA-001071 Division: Section B

OFFICIAL DOCUMENT

GENERAL CASE STANDING ORDER

All civil actions, except those enumerated in Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.200(a), must be assigned one of three case management tracks within 120 days after the action is filed: streamlined, general, or complex. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.200(b). NOTE: The parties must comply with Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.201 to designate the action as "complex." Plaintiff(s), or Plaintiff(s)'s counsel, must file and serve this Standing Order upon all named Defendant(s) or Defendant(s)'s counsel with the summons and complaint.

CASE TRACK ASSIGNMENT: GENERAL

DEFINITION:	PROJECTED TRIAL DATE
All other civil actions that do not meet the criteria for "complex" or "streamlined" cases.	October 12, 2026 18 months after the action is filed. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.440.

DEADLINES

The parties are subject to a continuing duty to MEET AND CONFER regarding the projected deadlines established by this Order. All deadlines established by this Order must be strictly enforced and can only be changed by court order. If a party is unable to meet the established case management deadlines, the party must notify the Court within a reasonable time. Any request to change the overall case track assignment must be filed promptly after the appearance of good cause to support the motion. To modify the terms of this Order, the parties may: (1) submit an agreed order to the Court to extend a deadline; or (2) file a motion in accordance with Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.200(e)(3)(A)-(D) seeking leave of Court to extend a deadline, modify this Order, or alter a projected trial period. To schedule an actual trial date, the parties must cooperate with the Court according to its practice preferences. To alter an actual trial period, the parties must satisfy the requirements of Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.460.

CATEGORY	GENERAL CASE DEADLINES[1]
Service of Complaint	Despite diligent efforts, Plaintiff has been unable to locate and effectuate personal service on Defendant. Defendant is currently concealing his whereabouts and evading personal service. The deadline under the Rule would be August 8, 2025, and Plaintiff intends to effectuate service through alternative means prior to that date. 120 days after the action is filed. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.070(j).
Service under Extension	Plaintiff will only request an extension as necessary to effectuate service through alternative means given Defendant's active concealment of his whereabouts for service evasion. Deadlines for extensions to serve process upon defendants are at the discretion of the trial judge. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.070(j).
Pre-Trial Conference	September 14, 2026 To be scheduled pursuant to the trial judge's practice preferences.
Schedule a Trial Date	October 12, 2026 18 months after the action is filed. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.440.
Adding New Parties	April 10, 2026

[1] At the time of the filing of this standing order by the Plaintiff, service had not yet been perfected. As such, Plaintiff has not had an opportunity to confer regarding the deadlines proposed herein, but will do so at the earliest possible opportunity and update the Court should any amendments be necessary.

UNOFFICIAL DOCUMENT

	Deadline for adding new parties is at the discretion of the trial judge. See Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.070(j); see also Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.190.
Completion of Fact Discovery	May 15, 2026
Completion of Expert Discovery	June 19, 2026
Filing and Service of Motions for Summary Judgment	July 16, 2026 File and serve 60 days before the pre-trial conference. Must be heard prior to the pre-trial conference.
Filing and Resolution of All Objections to Pleadings	September 11, 2026 Before the pre-trial conference.
Filing and Resolution of All Pretrial Motions	September 11, 2026 Before the pre-trial conference.
Completion of Alternative Dispute Resolution, including Non-Binding Arbitration and Mediation	September 11, 2026 Before the pre-trial conference.

THEREFORE, it is ORDERED and ADJUDGED in the Sixth Judicial Circuit, Florida, this ____ day of _____, 20___:

The above-styled case is designated as GENERAL with a projected trial date of 18 MONTHS AFTER THE ACTION IS FILED, and all parties must abide by the corresponding deadlines.

_____

Honorable Alicia Polk

UNOFFICIAL DOCUMENT