IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR PASCO COUNTY, FLORIDA

TRULIEVE, INC.,
Plaintiff,
v. Case No. 2025-CA-001071-CAAXES
NATHAN JUREWICZ, Defendant.

DEFENDANT'S NOTICE OF PRODUCTION FROM NONPARTY

(Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.351)

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.351, Defendant Nathan Jurewicz, appearing pro se, intends to serve the attached subpoena for production of documents and things, without deposition, on the following nonparty:

> Indiegogo, Inc., by and through its registered agent for service of process, Corporation Service Company, 2710 Gateway Oaks Drive, Suite 150N, Sacramento, California 95833-3502.

The documents and things to be produced are described in Schedule A to the attached proposed subpoena.

Pursuant to Rule 1.351(b), the subpoena will not be issued or served until at least ten (10) days after service of this Notice if service is made by delivery or e-mail (fifteen (15) days if by mail). Any party who objects to the production of the materials described in the attached proposed subpoena must serve a written objection within that time. If no objection is served, Defendant may have the subpoena issued by the Clerk of Court and served on the nonparty.

Because the nonparty is located in California, Defendant intends to domesticate the issued subpoena under California Code of Civil Procedure sections 2029.100–2029.900 so that it may be served and enforced in California. The operative terms and date of production will appear on the California subpoena issued under that procedure, consistent with the attached proposed subpoena.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I certify that on June 3, 2026, a true copy of this Notice and the attached proposed subpoena was served by e-mail, pursuant to Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.516, on counsel of record for Plaintiff Trulieve, Inc., at the following designated service addresses: shannon.timmann@mwpp.com; megan.meier@mwpp.com; devin.bolger@mwpp.com; hannah.menchel@mwpp.com; paralegals@mwpp.com (Meier Watkins Phillips Pusch LLP); and mleitman@stearnsweaver.com (Stearns Weaver Miller).

SCHEDULE A

Documents and Things to Be Produced

Definitions and instructions. “The Campaign” means the Indiegogo campaign titled “Ganja Leaks Legal Defense Fund” at https://www.indiegogo.com/en/projects/nathanjurewicz/ganja-leaks-legal-defense-fund, associated with the account RabbitHoleofTruth777@gmail.com, launched August 24, 2025. “Trulieve” means Trulieve, Inc. and any of its officers, employees, attorneys, or agents. “Communication” includes emails, messages, letters, support tickets, and internal notes. “You” means Indiegogo, Inc. The relevant time period is August 1, 2025 to the present. Produce documents as they are kept in the ordinary course, with metadata intact where electronically stored.

Please produce the following:

1. All communications between You (or Your payment processor, Stripe) and Trulieve, or anyone acting on Trulieve’s behalf, concerning the Campaign, the account, “GanjaLeaks,” or Nathan Jurewicz.

2. All complaints, reports, flags, takedown requests, or objections received by You from any third party concerning the Campaign.

3. All internal communications and records reflecting the basis for, and the decision-making behind, denying payout and cancelling the Campaign, including the “Compliance Department” determination referenced in Indiegogo’s December 29, 2025 message (from “Jade”) and the “legal team” review referenced in Indiegogo’s February 23, 2026 message (from “Maddie”).

4. All documents reflecting the policy, and any change to that policy on or about October 2025, cited as the basis for the denial, including the policy text, its effective date, and the date it was applied to the Campaign.

5. The complete account and Campaign file, including all support tickets and correspondence (including those handled by “Jade” and “Maddie”).

6. The payment/contribution list referenced in the February 23, 2026 message as downloaded from Stripe, and all records of refunds issued to backers of the Campaign.
