Case No.: 512025CA001071CAAXES
Division: J4

DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO COMPLY WITH THE COURT'S JUNE 23, 2026 ORDER COMPELLING DISCOVERY

Defendant, NATHAN JUREWICZ, appearing pro se, respectfully moves this Court for a brief extension of time to comply with paragraph 3 of the Court's June 23, 2026 Order Granting Plaintiff's Second Amended Motion to Compel and Denying Defendant's Motion for Protective Order, and in support states:

1. On June 23, 2026, the Court entered its Order (the "Order") directing the Defendant to respond in full and produce all documents and information responsive to Plaintiff's First Set of Requests for Production and First Set of Interrogatories by June 29, 2026, except as to the identity of his confidential source.

2. Paragraph 4 of the Order separately provides that, unless the Court grants Plaintiff's Motion to Dismiss in full at the July 13, 2026 hearing, the Defendant must disclose the identity of his confidential source by 11:00 a.m. on July 13, 2026. This Motion does not seek to alter that July 13, 2026 source-identity deadline; it concerns only the production of the remaining documents and information under paragraph 3.

3. Following the June 19, 2026 hearing, the Defendant, who is not an attorney and is representing himself, understood the document production to be tied to the July 13, 2026 date, and accordingly devoted his time to preparing for the July 13, 2026 hearing. Upon reviewing the written Order again, the Defendant recognized that the document production under paragraph 3 was due June 29, 2026. The Defendant's failure to complete production by that date was the result of an honest, good-faith misunderstanding and was not intended to delay these proceedings or to disregard the Court's Order.

4. The Defendant has been working diligently to gather and compile the responsive materials, which consist of voluminous social-media communications (hundreds of message screenshots). In assembling these materials the Defendant discovered that a number of the files failed to transfer correctly and must be re-captured, and the materials require careful review, the redaction of information protected from disclosure until July 13, 2026 under paragraph 4 of the Order, and the preparation of a privilege log.

5. The Defendant therefore requests a brief extension, through July 6, 2026, to complete and serve his production. The Defendant is prepared to produce responsive materials on a rolling basis and to begin delivering them before that date as they are ready.

6. Because the deadline under paragraph 3 has recently passed, this Motion is made under Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.090(b). The Defendant's good-faith misunderstanding, his pro se status, and his diligent ongoing efforts constitute excusable neglect supporting the requested extension.

7. The brief extension sought will not prejudice the Plaintiff. The July 13, 2026 source-identity deadline is unchanged, and no other case deadline is affected by this request. The extension is sought in good faith and not for purposes of delay.

8. In the interest of good faith, on June 30, 2026 the Defendant notified Plaintiff's counsel in writing of the foregoing and requested Plaintiff's agreement to this brief extension. The Defendant will promptly notify the Court if the parties reach agreement so that this Motion may be treated as unopposed.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant respectfully requests that this Court enter an order granting a brief extension of time, through July 6, 2026, to comply with paragraph 3 of the June 23, 2026 Order, permitting rolling production in the interim, and granting such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
