IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SIXTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR PASCO COUNTY, FLORIDA

TRULIEVE, INC.

Plaintiff,

Case No. 2025-CA001071-CAAXES

v.

NATHAN JUREWICZ,

Defendant.

TRULIEVE, INC.'S SECOND UNOPPOSED MOTION TO AMEND THE GENERAL CASE STANDING ORDER

Plaintiff Trulieve files this Second Unopposed Motion to Amend the General Case Standing Order and in support respectfully shows:

1. This case has repeatedly seen unforeseen delays. As discussed in Plaintiff's First Unopposed Motion to Amend the General Case Standing Order (DIN 41), although this action was filed on April 10, 2025, Plaintiff was unable to locate Defendant to serve him with the Complaint and was forced to initiate substituted process under section 48.16, Florida Statutes. Defendant was finally provided with notice of service on July 18, 2025, but per the Court's request, Plaintiff had filed its proposed General Case Standing Order on July 1, 2025, nearly two months before Defendant's counsel ultimately appeared in this matter on August 27, 2025.

2. Defendant's counsel then withdrew from this action on January 15, 2026 and, since then, Defendant has been proceeding pro se, which caused some additional delays. And, recently, the case has also seen delays with the filing of Plaintiff's Motion to Compel (DIN 33) on April 17, 2026 and Defendant's corresponding Motion for Protective Order (DIN 37) on April 21, 2026—the hearing of which took place on June 19, 2026—and Defendant finally noticing a hearing on his earlier filed Motion to Dismiss (DIN 13), which took place on July 13, 2026.

3. Although the Court previously amended the General Case Standing Order (DIN 43), given the above, an additional amendment is now needed. Notably, at the June 19, 2026 hearing on Plaintiff's Motion to Compel and Defendant's Motion for Protective Order, the parties discussed the need for an extension of the current deadlines, and the Court agreed that one would be needed.

4. Under the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, "[i]f extending an individual case management deadline may affect a subsequent deadline in the case management order, parties must seek an amendment of the case management order." Fla. R. Civ. P. 1.200(e).

5. Under this Court's May 6, 2026 Order Granting Trulieve's Unopposed Motion to Amend the General Case Standing Order, the completion of fact discovery is set for July 31, 2026, and the deadline for filing and service of motions of summary judgment is October 2, 2026. Plaintiff requests an extension so that fact discovery will now conclude on September 30, 2026 and so that the summary judgment deadline is now December 10, 2026. Plaintiff also proposes June 14, 2027 as a new projected trial date.

6. This extension will enable the parties to finish document review and production, as well as schedule depositions in this case.

7. Counsel for Plaintiff conferred with Defendant, who is proceeding pro se, via email on July 30, 2026, and Defendant is unopposed to the requested extension of time and the new proposed deadlines.

8. The relief requested is not sought for the purpose of delay but to further the interest of justice.

UNOFFICIAL DOCUMENT

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Trulieve respectfully requests that the Court enter an order extending the deadline to complete fact discovery to September 30, 2026, extending the deadline for summary judgment to December 2, 2026, and setting the new projected trial date for June 14, 2027.

CERTIFICATE OF CONFERRAL

I certify that prior to filing this motion, I discussed the relief requested in this motion by email with Defendant, and Defendant agrees with the relief requested.
