

Post Prizes

American Legion Post 477–St. Nazianz has announced its 2025 awards. Gary Bonnett, above left, receives the Legionnaire of the Year award from Post 477 Commander Kevin Nett. He is the post's second vice commander and fundraising chair. He contributes to many of the post's activities and is also involved in many community activities. He is a veteran of the U.S. Air Force. Dan Reinke, above right, receives the Squadron Member of the Year award from Sons of American Legion Squadron Commander Ken Skattebo. For the last four years, he has led the Civil War gravestone restoration project in Manitowoc County, restoring more than 375 headstones and replacing 17 headstones and markers. He is also the project manager and co-chair of the Tee It Up Fore Troops golf outing.
