SHORT TITLE: Gamboa vs. Resendez	CASE NUMBER:
-------------------------------------	--------------

ATTACHMENT (Number): FL-200, item 8.e.

(This Attachment may be used with any Judicial Council form.)

CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION (PARENTING TIME)

1. Respondent has a history of disappearing "on and off" and going to shelters, rehab places or being incarcerated. Respondent has been arrested several times for substance abuse and robberies.

2. Last time Respondent saw our daughter was sometime in February 2025; subsequently, he began to consume alcohol again.

3. Sometime in May 2025, Respondent threatened me that he would take me to court to get full/sole custody of our daughter. Then he lost his job in July 2025 due to an injury he suffered at work and he went on disability. His car was repossessed and he called me to demand I go pick him up but I refused because I do not want him around our daughter. He began harassing me via texts messages and phone calls threatening me that he would come by my house and make a scene. I refused to engage in back-and-forth texting and did not hear from Respondent again until 12/5/2025.

4. On 12/05/2025, Respondent texted me to tell me he was leaving to go to Mexico and that he wanted to seek dual citizenship, which concerns me because it would make it easier for Respondent to go back and forth and try to kidnap our 6-year-old daughter, especially if there is no court order prohibiting him from doing so. Moreover, Respondent has family in Mexico. Respondent sent me another text on 12/07/2025 telling me that he was very excited about meeting his grandchildren there.

(If the item that this Attachment concerns is made under penalty of perjury, all statements in this Attachment are made under penalty of perjury.)

CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION (PARENTING TIME) APPLICATION ATTACHMENT

—This is not a court order—

TO Petition Response Request for Order Responsive Declaration to Request for Order
 Other (specify):

This section is for information only and is not a part of your request for orders:

California's public policies and law on child custody and visitation include that:

- In general, children should have frequent and continuing contact with their parents, and parents should be encouraged to share the responsibility of raising their children, except when domestic abuse has happened or contact with a parent is not in the best interests of the children.
- When making any orders about physical and legal custody and visitation (parenting time), the court must consider the best interests of the child, which primarily include the health, safety, and welfare of the child.
- If a parent has been abusive, judges use laws to help protect children when deciding to make orders about child custody and visitation (parenting time). A judge may deny an abusive parent custody or unsupervised visitation with a child.
- Children have the right to be safe and free from abuse.
- A child's exposure to domestic violence and domestic violence committed where a child lives are detrimental to the health, safety, and welfare of the child.
- For more information, read selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/child-custody#best-interest and selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/domestic-violence-child-custody
