1 ATTACHMENT 9 – DECLARATION OF CHRISTY JOHNSON

2 1. I am the Petitioner herein. If called upon to testify as to the facts set forth in this
3 declaration, I could and would testify truthfully and competently to the following facts which are 4 all within my own personal knowledge.

5 2. I offer my declaration in lieu of personal testimony. The facts stated herein are within
6 my knowledge, and I further affirmatively state that if sworn as a witness, I could and would testify
7 competently thereto.

8 ORDERS REQUESTED

9 3. I respectfully request that this Court grant a name change for the minor child from 10 “Sarah-Meg Mohammed Aboaela Hassan” to “Sarah-Meg Michaela Johnson.”

11 BRIEF PROCEDURAL HISTORY

12 4. On January 1, 2023, I filed my Petition for Dissolution along with my Preliminary 13 Declaration of Disclosure documents. I filed an Amended Petition on February 8, 2023. Due to the 14 Respondent intentionally avoiding service and giving false promises that he would sign any Notice
15 and Acknowledgment of Receipt of the requisite Petition for Dissolution documents, I had to get 16 service by publication and the Respondent was not served until December 19, 2025 by the 17 completion of service by publication.

18 5. Judgment was filed on April 16, 2026 wherein I was granted sole physical and legal 19 custody of the minor child, Sarah-Meg Mohammad Aboaela Hassan (d.o.b. May 11, 2021). The date
20 the marital status ends is June 20, 2026. Attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit “A” is 21 a true and complete copy of the Judgment.

22 ORDERS REQUESTED

23 6. I respectfully request this court order that our daughter’s name be changed from 24 Sarah-Meg Mohammad Aboaela Hassan to Sarah-Meg Michaela Johnson.

25 DISCUSSION

26 7. My daughter, Sarah-Meg, has always been in my care and custody. Unfortunately, 27 her father has chosen to discard any relationship he may have had with our daughter. During our 28 marriage, I had to flee in the middle of the night from Egypt to escape the Respondent’s abuse.

1 8. I gave birth to our daughter in the United States. While in the United States, the
2 Respondent and I tried to work with an immigration lawyer to get him here for the birth or the first
3 year of our daughter's life. However, he chose not to cooperate with the embassy and the 4 immigration attorney to visit his daughter. Despite being terrified because of the Respondent's
5 abuse, I had hope, at that point, that if he moved to the United States he would leave his toxic
6 environment and his dysfunctional family wherein I could help him get the mental health he needed.
7 He refused any help and the emotional and verbal abuse escalated over to Whatsapp. Thus, I decided
8 to file for divorce instead of one-sidedly work on getting the Respondent a visa, something I now
9 know he never intended to pursue.

10 9. The last real contact the Respondent had with our daughter was on January 17, 2024,
11 which was the last date he called with her. After that, he sent two happy birthday texts on May 11,
12 2024 and May 11, 2025 but no birthday text message this year. He has not asked how she is doing,
13 what she is up to these days, or for any pictures of her. I believe he has little interest in his daughter
14 and has clearly made no efforts to foster any sort of relationship with her.

15 10. Despite having the ability to, the Respondent has not once made a trip out here to 16 visit our daughter. Our daughter has not met any of the Respondent's family and has zero familial
17 ties with anyone related to the Respondent at any point in time. No one, including the Respondent,
18 has reached out to establish a point of contact or relationship so the Respondent and his family can 19 have consistent updates about our daughter. She has been utterly neglected by her father. To the best
20 of my knowledge, he has not tried to make a trip. An opportunity arose in the past for him to come
21 to the United States but he refused to cooperate. It was clear he did not want to see his daughter.
22 Furthermore, I have heard from others that still live in Egypt that I and our daughter have been 23 slandered and ridiculed in Egypt by him and his family. Based on my personal knowledge of the 24 people and the culture, I cannot go back to Egypt because I fear it would put the both of us in danger
25 of being "honor killed" by his family.

26 11. Since January 22, 2022, our daughter has always gone by Sarah-Meg Michaela
27 Johnson. The Respondent made it very clear that he neither wanted nor needed any help with his 28 explosive temper and anger. Furthermore, he said he would not help me with getting him a visa to

1 come to the United States. Since then, our daughter has exclusively gone by Sarah-Meg Michaela
2 Johnson. This is the name she recognizes, the name she tells others her name is, and the only name
3 she has known her entire life. She would be devastated to learn that her legal name is different from 4 her grandma, papa (grandfather), and me.

5 12. In all her life, Sarah-Meg has only asked for the Respondent twice. First she asked
6 around January 2024 shortly after the Respondent stopped calling her. She was almost three and 7 recognized that the Respondent was no longer calling. The last time she asked was in February of 8 this year in the context of wanting a sibling. She is surrounded by loving families and friends who 9 have siblings. I had to appropriately respond with a brief age-appropriate “birds and the bees”
10 explanation about how there is no “daddy” so I could give her a sibling. Her response was that she 11 in fact, did have a daddy and it was her “Papa.” I had to explain to her that her Papa and her “daddy”
12 are two separate people. She has not asked about him outside of these two times. She has a plethora
13 of uncles and aunties in her life who she loves. At times, she accidentally calls her uncles “Daddy”
14 but the reality is, she has not mentioned or asked for her real dad except for the two times above.

15 13. There is no doubt that this is in our daughter’s best interest as detailed above. The 16 Respondent’s role in our daughter’s life is essentially non-existent based on his own choice. Our 17 daughter’s understanding of her father’s role in her life is not based on her current surname but “will 18 develop in light of his conduct and attitudes, especially his active involvement in her life.” (See
19 Marriage of McManamy & Templeton (1993) 14 CA4th 607, 611.) Unfortunately, the Respondent
20 has chosen to not be active in her life, even to the point of never visiting her in person and actively
21 choosing to make getting himself a visa to come to the United States impossible to happen. I 22 cannot force him to have a relationship with his own daughter, but based on his conduct, or rather 23 lack of conduct, he has made no efforts to be a “daddy” to his daughter.

NOTICE

Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner under the other spouse's or domestic partner's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, transfer-on-death vehicle registration, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar property interest. It does not automatically cancel the rights of a spouse or domestic partner as beneficiary of the other spouse's or domestic partner's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions.

A debt or obligation may be assigned to one party as part of the dissolution of property and debts, but if that party does not pay the debt or obligation, the creditor may be able to collect from the other party.

An earnings assignment may be issued without additional proof if child, family, partner, or spousal support is ordered.

Any party required to pay support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal rate," which is currently 10 percent.

CHILD SUPPORT INFORMATION AND ORDER ATTACHMENT

Johnson, Christy

PETITIONER: Christy Johnson	CASE NUMBER:
RESPONDENT: Mohammed Aboalela Hassan Ahmed	23STFL00668
OTHER PARENT/PARTY:

7. Health care expenses

- a. Health insurance coverage for the minor children of the parties must be maintained by the ☐ petitioner ☐ respondent ☐ other parent/party if available at no or reasonable cost through their respective places of employment or self-employment. Both parties are ordered to cooperate in the presentation, collection, and reimbursement of any health care claims. The parent ordered to provide health insurance must seek continuation of coverage for the child after the child attains the age when the child is no longer considered eligible for coverage as a dependent under the insurance contract, if the child is incapable of self-sustaining employment because of a physically or mentally disabling injury, illness, or condition and is chiefly dependent on the parent providing health insurance for support and maintenance.
- b. ☐ Health insurance is not available to the ☐ petitioner ☐ respondent ☐ other parent/party at a reasonable cost at this time.
- c. ☐ The party providing coverage must assign the right of reimbursement to the other party.

8. Earnings assignment

An earnings assignment order is issued. Note: The parent ordered to pay support is responsible for the payment of support directly to the recipient until support payments are deducted from the payor's wages and for payment of any support not paid by the assignment.

9. In the event that there is a contract between a person ordered to receive support and a private child support collector, the parent ordered to pay support must pay the fee charged by the private child support collector. This fee must not exceed 33-1/3 percent of the total amount of past due support nor may it exceed 50 percent of any fee charged by the private child support collector. The money judgment created by this provision is in favor of the private child support collector and the person ordered to receive support, jointly.

10. ☐ Employment search order (Family Code section 4505)

☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent ☐ Other parent/party is ordered to seek employment with the following terms and conditions:

11. Other orders (specify):12. Notices

- a. Notice of Rights and Responsibilities Regarding Child Support (form FL-192) must be attached and is incorporated into this order.
- b. If this form is attached to Restraining Order After Hearing (form DV-130), the support orders issued on this form (form FL-342) remain in effect after the restraining orders issued on form DV-130 end.

13. Child Support Case Registry Form

Both parties must complete and file with the court a Child Support Case Registry Form (form FL-191) within 10 days of the date of this order. Thereafter, the parties must notify the court of any change in the information submitted within 10 days of the change by filing an updated form.

NOTICE: Any parent ordered to pay child support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the legal rate, which is currently 10 percent per year.

NON-GUIDELINE CHILD SUPPORT FINDINGS ATTACHMENT

Attachment to ☒ Child Support Information and Order Attachment (form FL-342)
☐ Other (specify):

The court makes the following findings required by Family Code sections 4056, 4057, and 4065:

1. STIPULATION TO NON-GUIDELINE ORDER

- ☐ The child support agreed to by the parties is ☐ below or ☐ above the statewide child support guideline. The amount of support that would have been ordered under the guideline formula is: $ _____ per month. The parties have been fully informed of their rights concerning child support. Neither party is acting out of duress or coercion. Neither party is receiving public assistance and no application for public assistance is pending. The needs of the children will be adequately met by this agreed-upon amount of child support. If the order is below the guideline, no change of circumstances will be required to modify this order. If the order is above the guideline, a change of circumstances will be required to modify the order.

OTHER REBUTTAL FACTORS

2. ☒ Support calculation

- a. The guideline amount of child support calculated is: $ _____ per month payable by ☐ petitioner ☐ respondent ☐ other parent/party
- b. The court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that rebuttal factors exist. The rebuttal factors result in an ☐ increase ☐ decrease in child support. The revised amount of support is: $ _____ per month.
- c. The court finds the child support amount revised by these factors to be in the best interest of the children and that application of the formula would be unjust or inappropriate in this case under Family Code section 4057(b). These changes remain in effect ☐ until (date): _____ ☐ until further order
- d. The factors are:
 - (1) ☐ The sale of the family residence is deferred under Family Code section 3800, and the rental value of the family residence in which the children reside exceeds the mortgage payments, homeowners insurance, and property taxes by: $ _____ per month.
 - (2) ☐ The parent ordered to pay support has extraordinarily high income, and the amount determined under the guideline would exceed the needs of the children
 - (3) ☐ The ☐ parent ordered to pay support ☐ person ordered to receive support is not contributing to the needs of the children at a level commensurate with that party's custodial time.
 - (4) ☐ After application of the low-income adjustment, guideline child support would be greater than 50 percent of the net disposable income of the parent ordered to pay support
 - (5) ☒ Special circumstances exist in this case. The special circumstances are:
 - (a) ☐ The parents have different time-sharing arrangements for different children.
 - (b) ☐ The parents have substantially equal custody of the children and one parent has a much lower or higher percentage of income used for housing than the other parent.
 - (c) ☐ A child has special medical or other needs that require support greater than the formula amount. These needs are (specify): _____
- (d) ☒ Other (specify):
 Petitioner is unable to determine Respondent's income as he lives in Egypt and has not been responsive to her filings. Petitioner requests child support be set at $0. Petitioner is able to support the minor child without Respondent's assistance. Petitioner does not receive any government aid.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES REGARDING CHILD SUPPORT

Childcare and Health Care Costs and Reimbursement Procedures

Your child support order may include a provision for payment of childcare or uninsured health care costs. Childcare costs may be included as part of the monthly child support payment or reimbursable as a percentage of the costs. If the childcare costs are included as part of the monthly child support payment, you must pay that amount each month until the court changes (modifies) the child support order. If you need to change your child support order because there has been a change in the cost of childcare, see page 2.

If you have a child support order that includes a provision for the reimbursement of a percentage of childcare costs or a portion of the child's or children's health care costs and those costs are not paid by insurance, the law says:

1. Notice. You must give the other parent an itemized statement of the charges that have been billed for any childcare costs or health care costs not paid by insurance. You must give this statement to the other parent within a reasonable time, but no more than 90 days after those costs were given to you.
2. Proof of full payment. If you have already paid all of the childcare costs or uninsured health care costs, you must (1) give the other parent proof that you paid them and (2) ask for reimbursement for the other parent's court-ordered share of those costs.
3. Proof of partial payment. If you have paid only your share of the childcare costs or uninsured health care costs, you must (1) give the other parent proof that you paid your share, (2) ask that the other parent pay his or her share of the costs directly to the childcare or health care provider, and (3) give the other parent the information necessary for that parent to be able to pay the bill.
4. Payment by notified parent. If you receive notice from a parent that a childcare or uninsured health care cost has been incurred, you must pay your share of that cost within the time the court orders; or if the court has not specified a period of time, you must make payment (1) within 30 days from the time you were given notice of the amount due, (2) according to any payment schedule set by the health care provider, (3) according to a schedule agreed to in writing by you and the other parent, or (4) according to a schedule adopted by the court.
5. Going to court. Sometimes parents get into disagreements about childcare and health care costs. If you and the other parent cannot resolve the situation after talking about it, you can request that the court make a decision.
 - a. Disputed requests for payment. If you dispute a request for payment made by the other parent, you may file a request for the court to resolve the dispute, but only if you pay the requested amount before filing your request.
 - b. Nonpayment. If you claim that the other parent has failed to pay you back for a payment, or they have failed to make a payment to the provider after proper notice, you may file a request for the court to resolve the dispute.
 - c. Paid charges. The court will presume that if uninsured health care costs or childcare costs for employment or necessary training for job skills have been paid, those costs were reasonable. If you want to dispute paid charges, you will have to show the court that the costs were unreasonable.
 - d. Attorney's fees. If the court decides one parent has been unreasonable, it can order that parent to pay the other parent's attorney's fees and costs.
 - e. Court forms. Use forms FL-300 and FL-490 to get a court date. See form FL-300-INFO for information about completing, filing, and serving your court papers.
6. Court-ordered insurance coverage. If a parent provides health care insurance as ordered by the court, that insurance must be used at all times to the extent that it is available for health care costs.
 - a. Burden to prove. The parent claiming that the coverage is inadequate to meet the child's needs has the burden of proving that to the court.
 - b. Cost of additional coverage. If a parent purchases health care insurance in addition to that ordered by the court, that parent must pay all the costs of the additional coverage. In addition, if a parent uses alternative coverage that costs more than the coverage provided by court order, that parent must pay the difference.
7. Preferred health providers. If the court-ordered coverage designates a preferred health care provider, that provider must be used at all times consistent with the terms of the health insurance policy. When any parent uses a health care provider other than the preferred provider, any health care costs that would have been paid by the preferred health provider if that provider had been used must be the sole responsibility of the parent incurring those costs.
8. Need help? Contact the family law facilitator in your county or call your county's bar association and ask for an experienced family lawyer.

Information Sheet on Changing a Child Support Order

General Info

The court has made a child support order in your case. This order will remain the same unless one of the parents requests that the support be changed (modified). An order for child support can be modified by filing a request to change child support and serving the other parent. If both parents agree on a new child support amount, they can complete, sign, and file with the court a Stipulation to Establish or Modify Child Support and Order (form FL-350). (Note: If the local child support agency is involved in your case, it must be served with any request to change child support and approve any agreement.)

Online Self-Help Guide

For more information about how child support works, visit: <https://selfhelp.courts.ca.gov/child-support>.

When a Child Support Order May Be Changed

The court considers several things when ordering the payment of child support.

- First, the number of children is considered, along with the percentage of time each parent has physical custody of the children.
- Next, the net disposable incomes of both parents are determined (which is how much money is left each month after taxes and certain other items like health insurance, union dues, or other child support ordered and paid are subtracted from a parent's paycheck). The court can also look at a parent's earning ability.
- The court considers both parents' tax filing status and may consider hardships, such as the cost of raising the parent's child from another relationship who lives with the parent.

A parent can request to change an existing order for child support when circumstances change significantly. For example if the net disposable income of one of the parents changes, parenting time changes, or a new child is born.

Examples

- You have been ordered to pay $500 per month in child support. You lose your job. You will continue to owe $500 per month, plus 10 percent interest on any unpaid support, unless you file a motion to modify your child support to a lower amount and the court orders a reduction.
- You are currently receiving $300 per month in child support from the other parent, whose net income has just increased substantially. You will continue to receive $300 per month unless you file a motion to modify your child support to a higher amount and the court orders an increase.
- You are paying child support based on having physical custody of your children 30 percent of the time. After several months it turns out that you actually have physical custody of the children 50 percent of the time. You may file a motion to modify child support to a lower amount.

How to Change a Child Support Order

To change a child support order, you must file papers with the court. Remember: You must follow the order you have now.

What forms do I need?

If you are asking to change a child support order, you must fill out one of these forms:

- Form FL-300, Request for Order or
- Form FL-390, Notice of Motion and Motion for Simplified Modification of Order for Child, Spousal, or Family Support

You must also fill out one of these forms, and attach proof of income for the past two months (like your paycheck stubs):

- Form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration or
- Form FL-155, Financial Statement (Simplified)

What if I am not sure which forms to fill out?

Contact the family law facilitator in your county. You can find them here: www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp-facilitators.htm.

After you fill out the forms, file them with the court clerk and ask for a hearing date. Write the hearing date on the form. The clerk may ask you to pay a filing fee. If you cannot afford the fee, fill out these forms, too:

- Form FW-001, Request to Waive Court Fees and
- Form FW-003, Order on Court Fee Waiver (Superior Court)

You must serve the other parent. If the local child support agency is involved, serve it too.

- This means someone 18 or over—not you—must deliver copies of your filed court forms to the other parent, at least 16 court days before the hearing. Add 5 calendar days if delivered by mail within California (see Code of Civil Procedure section 1005 for other situations).
- Court days are weekdays when the court is open for business (Monday through Friday except court holidays). Calendar days include all days of the month, including weekends and holidays. To find court holidays, go to www.courts.ca.gov/holidays.htm.

Blank copies of both of these forms must also be served:

- Form FL-320, Responsive Declaration to Request for Order
- Form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration

Then the server fills out and signs a Proof of Service. Take this form, plus one copy, to the clerk and file it at least one week before your hearing.

Go to your hearing and ask the judge to change the support. Bring your tax returns from the last two years and your proof of income for the past two months (like your paycheck stubs). The judge will look at your information, listen to both parents, and make an order. After the hearing, fill out:

- Form FL-340, Findings and Order After Hearing and
- Form FL-342, Child Support Information and Order Attachment

Information About Child Support for Incarcerated or Confined Parents

1. Child support. As of September 27, 2022, child support automatically stops if the parent who has to pay is confined against their will for more than 90 days in a row in jail, prison, juvenile detention, a mental health facility, or other institution.

Exception. Child support does not automatically stop if the parent who has to pay has money available to pay child support.

2. Past confinement. Child support also automatically stops during past confinement if it was ordered from October 8, 2015, through December 31, 2019, or January 1, 2021, through September 26, 2022, and the parent who has to pay was confined for more than 90 days in a row during the same time frame.

Exceptions for past confinement. Child support does not automatically stop if the parent who has to pay was in jail or prison for failing to pay child support or for domestic violence against the other parent or the child, or if they had money available to pay support.

3. Timing. The date child support automatically restarts will depend on the parent's release date. If you need to change your child support order, see page 2.

- a. If released before January 1, 2024, child support automatically restarts the first day of the first full month after the parent is released.
- b. If released after January 1, 2024, child support will automatically restart the first day of the 10th month after the parent is released.

Employment before the 10-month period ends: If the parent who has to pay support starts working before the date child support is set to automatically restart, the person who is owed support or the local child support agency can request the court restart the child support order early. The court may order a different amount of child support if appropriate.
