Recess Olympics South Florida comes to Boca Raton for MS and childhood cancer

WHAT	Recess Olympics South Florida 2026, a field day-style fundraiser with four square, hula hoop, jump rope and the signature Hopscotch Tournament, benefiting Multiple Sclerosis and childhood cancer.
WHEN	Sunday, Nov. 15, 2026, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. ET
WHERE	Clive Daniel Home, 1351 NW Boca Raton Blvd., Boca Raton, FL 33432
WHO	Hopping 4 A Cure co-founder David Nassau and president Marla Jaffe; Diane Trivelli, founder and president of the Arielle Anacker Cancer Foundation, Inc.; Recess Olympians of all ages and abilities.
WHY	Hopping 4 A Cure began in 2010 when two Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School juniors suited up as "varsity hopscotchers." Co-founder David Nassau's father has lived with MS since David was a child. Proceeds are split 50/50 with the Arielle Anacker Cancer Foundation, Inc., which Diane Trivelli founded in Coconut Creek in 2009 in memory of her daughter, Arielle, to help needy families of children with cancer pay their bills and support Ewing's sarcoma research.
VISUALS	Visuals all day: chalk hopscotch grids, four square, jump rope, bean bag Challenge brackets and the EXTREME Hopscotch obstacle course and relay race.
INTERVIEWS	David Nassau, Marla Jaffe and Diane Trivelli, before and on event day, at the venue. Call or text to arrange.
REGISTER	$20 per player at recessolympics.org/fl. Every Recess Olympian gets a fundraising page.
