

THE HAPPY, HEALTHY, WEALTHY RETREAT

You built the business. Now build the life.

For the woman CEO who has achieved everything on paper - and is quietly wondering why it doesn't feel the way she thought it would.

This is not a conference. Not a mastermind. Not another strategy session that leaves you with a notebook full of ideas and no one to hold you accountable to any of them.

This is the invitation you have never given yourself.

YOU MAY RECOGNIZE YOURSELF HERE

She has everything. Except the feeling she thought would come with it.

"I keep waiting for a moment to breathe. It never comes."

"I've achieved so much. So why does something still feel missing?"

"The success is real. The exhaustion is also real. I'm not willing to keep choosing between them."

A WORD FROM DR. LINETTE

The superwoman cape was never part of the deal.

I have spent decades sitting across from brilliant women who had built everything the world told them to want - and still felt something essential was missing.

Not because they had built the wrong thing. But because no one had ever helped them build the life alongside the business. As an integrated whole. Not a trade-off.

I created Butterflies Are Free™ for that woman.

“You can be Happy, Healthy AND Wealthy... superwoman cape no longer desired.”

THE EXPERIENCE

The experience that changes the relationship between who you are and what you've built.

It begins before you leave home - with private strategy work and wellness preparation designed so you arrive at the retreat center open to transformation.

At the Retreat Center, you spend a full day in private strategy with Dr. Linette Montae. Then 2.5 days in the Happiness Retreat - guided breathwork, yoga, meditation, nature, and stillness. Time that belongs entirely to you.

After arriving home, you will receive a bespoke Profitable CEO® Framework built across all seven layers of your business, a personalized Ayurvedic wellness plan, and the embodiment work to hold it all in place.

The support continues for 40 or 60 days after the retreat ends - through direct access to Dr. Linette and a private Feminine Embodiment coach - as the transformation becomes your new normal.

Both experiences are all-inclusive. You arrive. Everything is already arranged.

CHOOSING YOUR EXPERIENCE

Same work. Same Dr. Linette.

A different depth of surrounding support.

The difference is not the quality of the experience. It is the depth of the container around it - and how closely you want to be held through implementation.
