

Terms & Conditions

Welcome to Build a Biz Kids and the Launch Your Business program ("Program"). We are excited to support your child as they develop entrepreneurial, financial, and life skills through hands-on activities, videos, and real-world business experiences.

By purchasing and accessing the Program, you agree to the following Terms and Conditions. Please read them carefully before making your purchase.

1. Program Access

Upon purchase, your family will receive access to the Program materials, including videos, worksheets, activities, and any related resources included with your purchase.

Parents and guardians will receive ongoing updates as their child progresses through the Program and completes classes.

Access to the Program is granted solely to the purchasing family and may not be shared, transferred, resold, copied, or distributed.

Children are welcome to navigate and complete the Program independently. However, if a student chooses to create a product or business that involves potentially hazardous materials, tools, heat sources, sharp objects, or other activities that may pose a safety risk, appropriate parental or guardian supervision is required. Build a Biz Kids is not responsible for injuries, accidents, or damages resulting from activities completed outside of the Program.

2. Intellectual Property

All Program content, including but not limited to videos, worksheets, text, graphics, branding, activities, and downloadable materials, is the intellectual property of Build a Biz Kids and is protected by applicable copyright and intellectual property laws.

You may not reproduce, record, distribute, modify, sell, publish, or create derivative works from any portion of the Program without our prior written consent.

3. Refund Policy

Refund eligibility is as follows:

- Families who have accessed only Class 1 and/or Class 2 may request a full refund within fourteen (14) days of purchase.
- Once Class 3 has been activated or accessed, the purchase becomes non-refundable, regardless of how many days have passed since the original purchase.
