

KAT LEE RIVERS

Forest folk with Texas soul

Kat Lee Rivers makes Americana-folk music that explores the art of getting back to oneself. For Kat and countless others, this involves getting off of your screen, making things with your hands, getting in nature, embracing the simple things, and finding magic in the mundane. Her music feels like arriving home after a long trip; getting cozy by the campfire; a long-awaited catch up with an old friend; a wandering walk in the woods.

"The perfect combination of ability, training, and heart."

- Bob Lanzetti Grammy Award Winning Guitarist (Snarky Puppy)

THEMES

Rivers' songs celebrate the quiet power of slowing down and finding steady comfort in the rhythms of nature and home. Whether she's leaning into the "Quiet Queen" energy (her ballad for introverts), or exploring grief and the beyond with "Red Tailed Hawk," the title track of her upcoming sophomore record, Kat's award-winning voice offers a warm place to land and reset.

COMING FALL 2026

NEW AMERICANA/FOLK ALBUM BY KAT LEE RIVERS & BOB LANZETTI

Produced by Grammy-winning guitarist Bob Lanzetti (Snarky Puppy), Kat's upcoming sophomore album is an invitation to slow down and stay a while. Recorded at NYC's Flux Studios and Nashville's Crosstie Recordings, the project captures a timeless "old soul" sensibility through intricate melodies and the warm, lonesome cry of pedal steel.

This new collection of songs explores the art of getting back to oneself. For Kat this involves getting off of your screen, making things with your hands, being outdoors, weaving a path through grief, and finding magic in the mundane. Kat succeeds in giving her fans both an intimate and entertaining performance that lets you know you're not the only one wanting to slow down, get off your phone, be in nature, and find deeper connection.

And as one festival organizer recently told her, "I just had to get up and dance when I heard your song Quiet Queen!"
