

THE PARENT DECLARATION

They are My Kids!™

I make this declaration because no one is more influential in my child's life than I am. I will lead with purpose, love with intention, and prepare them for life.

THE DECLARATION

1. I accept that the primary responsibility for preparing my children for life belongs to me.

2. I will welcome the guidance and support of schools, churches, coaches, mentors, family, and friends, and I will value every person who invests in my children.

3. I will never give away the responsibility that is uniquely mine.

4. I will intentionally use everyday life to teach, encourage, guide, and prepare my children for adulthood.

5. I will strive to help my children develop virtue, character, sound judgment, practical life skills, resilience, compassion, and the confidence to become capable, responsible adults.
