 - b. are Actively at Work; and
 - c. have been continuously insured under the Policy from the effective date of Your insurance through the date of Your Disability.

We will determine Our payments using the provisions of the Policy; however the applicable maximum benefit payment will not be more than the applicable maximum benefit payment of a Prior Group Plan.

ELIGIBILITY, EFFECTIVE DATE AND TERMINATION PROVISIONS

Our payments will be the lesser of:

Disabled or Disability After 24 Months of Benefit Payments means You will be considered Disabled if We determine that:

1. You are unable to perform all of the Essential Duties of Any Occupation; and
2. Your Disability Earnings are 20% or 40% or less than Your Indexed Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings, as applicable solely due to the same Sickness or Injury.

Benefit Calculation - Disabled and Not Working or Disabled and Working and Earning Less Than 20% of Your Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Earnings: Your Monthly Payment will be calculated as follows:

- Step 1. Multiply Your Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings by the Benefit Percentage.
- Step 2. Compare the result in Step 1 with the Maximum Monthly Benefit Amount.
- Step 3. The lesser of the results in Step 1 and Step 2 is Your monthly Gross Disability Payment.
- Step 4. Subtract any Other Income Benefit amounts from Your monthly Gross Disability Payment (as determined in Step 3).

The result is Your Monthly Payment, which will not exceed the Maximum Monthly Benefit Amount.

Benefit Calculation: Work Incentive: When You first return to work during a period of Disability, and are earning between 20% and 80% of Your Indexed Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings, Your Monthly Payment for the first 12 months will be calculated as follows:

- Step 1. Add Your monthly Disability Earnings to your Gross Disability Payment determined in the Benefit Calculation: Disabled and Not Working or Disabled and Working and Earning Less Than 20% of Your Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Earnings.
- Step 2. Compare the result with Your Long Term Pre-Disability Earnings.

If the result in Step 2 is less than or equal to 100% of Your Indexed Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings, We will not reduce Your Monthly Payment. Otherwise, We will subtract the amount over 100% of Your Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings from Your Monthly Payment.

LONG TERM DISABILITY BENEFIT

Benefit Calculation - Disabled and Working after Work Incentive Calculation: After the period of time that the Work Incentive calculation applies, Your Monthly Payment will be calculated as follows:

Step 1. Subtract Your Disability Earnings from Your Indexed Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings.

Step 2. Divide the result in Step 1 by Your Indexed Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings. This is Your percentage of lost earnings.

Step 3. Multiply the result in Step 2 by the Monthly Payment as determined in the Benefit Calculation: Disabled and Not Working or Disabled and Working and Earning Less Than 20% of Your Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Earnings.

The result is Your new Monthly Payment, which will not exceed the Maximum Monthly Benefit Amount.

After the Elimination Period, if You are Disabled for a portion of a month, We will pro-rate Your Monthly Payment for each day of Disability.

The Maximum Monthly Benefit Amount is shown in the Schedule of Benefits.

Fluctuation of Disability Earnings: If the amount of Your Disability Earnings fluctuate, We may average Your Disability Earnings over the most recent 3 months to determine if Your claim should continue, subject to all other terms and conditions in the Policy.

When We average Your Disability Earnings We will not terminate Your claim unless the average of Your Disability Earnings from the most recent 3 months exceeds 80% of Your Indexed Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings. We will pay You the Minimum Monthly Benefit for any month during which Disability Earnings exceed 80% of Your Indexed Long Term Disability Pre-Disability Monthly Earnings.

Cost of Living Increases: After the first deduction for each of the Other Income Benefits, We will not further reduce the amount of Your Monthly Payment due to cost of living increases You receive from any of the Other Income Benefits.

Effect of Other Income Benefits on Payment: We will subtract Other Income Benefits from Your Gross Disability Payment. If subtracting Other Income Benefits results in a zero benefit, Your Monthly Payment will be the Minimum Monthly Benefit Amount shown in the Schedule of Benefits. However, the Minimum Monthly Benefit Amount may be applied toward an outstanding overpayment.

Other Income Benefits must be payable as a result of the same Disability for which You are receiving a Monthly Payment, except for retirement benefits.

We will not reduce Your Monthly Payment by:

1. Your contributions to Your Employer's Retirement Plan;
2. amounts Your Employer rolls over or transfers to an eligible Retirement Plan; or
3. Social Security retirement benefits You were receiving before Your Disability began, if Your Disability began after Your 70th birthday.

If You receive any Other Income Benefits in a lump sum payment, We will pro-rate the lump sum benefit payment on a monthly basis over the time period for which the sum was given. If no time period is stated, the sum will be pro-rated on a monthly basis to the end of Your Maximum Benefit Duration.

Estimating Amounts of Other Income Benefits: We have the right to estimate the amount of benefits You may be eligible to receive from Other Income Benefits. We can reduce Your Monthly Payment by the estimated amount if:

1. You have not been awarded but have not been denied such benefits;
2. You have been denied such benefits and the denial is being appealed; or
3. You are reapplying for such benefits.

We will not reduce Your Monthly Payment by the estimated amount if:

LONG TERM DISABILITY BENEFIT

1. You apply or reapply for the benefits and appeal Your denial through all of the administrative levels We have determined are necessary; or
2. You sign Our reimbursement agreement form stating that You promise to pay Us any overpayment caused by an award.

If We reduce Your Monthly Payment by an estimated amount:

1. We will adjust Your Monthly Payment when You provide proof of the amount awarded; or
2. We will issue a lump sum refund of the estimated amount if You were denied benefits and have completed all appeals (or reapplications) We have determined are necessary.

Accumulation of Elimination Period:

If You are Disabled and:

1. You return to work for Your Employer for a period of time that is less than the Accumulation of Elimination Period; and
2. You cannot continue to work;

You will not have to begin a new Elimination Period. However, We will count only those days You are Disabled toward satisfying the Elimination Period. The Elimination Period and the Accumulation of Elimination Period are shown in the Schedule of Benefits.

Recurrent Disability: If Your current Disability is:

1. due to the same causes(s) as Your prior Disability, for which We made a payment; and
2. is caused by a worsening of Your condition;

We will treat it as part of Your prior claim.

You will not have to complete another Elimination Period if You return to Active Work for Your Employer for 6 consecutive months or less. Your Disability will be subject to all of the Policy provisions as Your prior claim.

Any Disability which occurs after 6 consecutive months from the date Your prior claim ended will be treated as a new claim. Your new claim will be subject to all of the Policy provisions, including the Elimination Period.

If You return to work for another employer, We will treat Your Recurrent Disability as established above for the first 6 months following Your return to work. Any Recurrent Disability that occurs more than 6 months, but less than 12 months after the end of Your prior Disability will be treated as a continuation of the prior Disability; however, You will be required to complete a new Elimination Period.

If You become eligible for benefits under any other group long term disability policy, You will not be eligible for payments under the Policy.

Multiple Causes: If a period of Disability is extended by a new and unrelated cause while benefits are payable, benefits will continue while You remain Disabled, however:

1. benefits will not continue beyond the end of the original Maximum Benefit Duration; and
2. any Exclusions and Long Term Disability Pre-Existing Conditions Exclusion will apply to the new cause of Disability.

Concurrent Disabilities: If You have one continuous period of Disability that is caused by more than one Sickness or Injury, Your Benefits will be paid as if the Disabilities were caused by one Sickness or one Injury. We will not pay benefits for more than one continuous period of Disability at the same time. If more than one benefit duration is applicable to Your period of Disability, We will pay the longest duration, subject to all other limitations and provisions of the Policy.

Termination of Benefits: We will stop making Your Monthly Payments and Your claim will end on the earliest of:

LONG TERM DISABILITY BENEFIT

1. the date You are no longer Disabled according to the terms of the Policy;
2. the date You reach the end of the Maximum Benefit Duration;
3. the date You fail to provide proof of continuing Disability;
4. the date Your Disability Earnings exceed the amount allowable under the Policy;
5. the date You choose not to increase the number of hours You work or the number of duties You perform, which would have increased Your Disability Earnings;
6. the date You refuse to be examined by a Physician, if such an exam is requested by Us;
7. the date You refuse to be interviewed by one of Our representatives;
8. the date You cease to be under the Regular Care of a Physician; and
9. the date You die.

If You are a citizen of the United States and You are receiving Treatment outside of the United States, We may require that You return to the United States for Treatment. Failure to return, if required, may result in the termination of Your benefits.

LONG TERM DISABILITY LUMP SUM SURVIVOR BENEFIT

Lump Sum Survivor Benefit: We will pay a lump sum benefit, as shown in the Schedule of Benefits if:

1. You are receiving or are entitled to receive Monthly Payments at the time of Your death; and
2. Your Disability had continued for at least 90 days consecutively.

Upon receipt of proof of Your death, We will first apply any Lump Sum Survivor Benefit to any overpayment which may exist on Your claim. If there is no overpayment, the Lump Sum Survivor Benefit will be paid to:

1. Your spouse, if living, otherwise;
2. Your children.

If You have no living spouse or children, payment will be made to Your estate.

LONG TERM DISABILITY WORKPLACE MODIFICATION BENEFIT

1. Your Employer agrees to make necessary modifications to:
 - a. Your work environment; or
 - b. the way Your job is performed;to allow You to return to Actively at Work despite Your Disability; and
2. any proposed modifications to Your workplace must be in writing by Your Employer and approved by Us prior to implementation.

We have the right to have You evaluated by a Physician or a Vocational Rehabilitation Consultant of Our choice prior to approving any proposed modifications.

The Workplace Modification Benefit will be the lesser of:

1. the actual cost of the modifications to Your workplace; or
2. the Workplace Modifications Maximum Benefit Amount shown in the Schedule of Benefits.

This benefit is available once in Your lifetime and is payable in addition to any other benefits for which You qualify.

We will continue making Monthly Payments to You beyond this limited benefit duration for Disabilities due to Mental Illness or Substance Abuse:

1. if You are confined to a Hospital as an inpatient for at least 24 hours; and
2. for a recovery period for up to 90 days if You are still Disabled when You are discharged.

If You become re-confined at any time during the recovery period for such Disability and remain confined for at least 14 consecutive days, We will make Monthly Payments during that additional confinement and for one additional recovery period of up to 90 days.

This provision applies only where the interpretation of the Policy is governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA).

STATEMENT OF EMPLOYEE ERISA RIGHTS

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) guarantees certain rights and protections to participants of welfare plans. Federal law and regulations require that a "Statement of ERISA Rights" be included in this description of the Plan.

You may examine, without charge, all Plan documents, including any insurance contracts, collective bargaining agreements, annual reports, summary plan descriptions and other documents filed with the Department of Labor. You can examine copies of these documents in the Plan Administrator's office or at other specified locations, or you can ask your supervisor where copies of the documents are available.

If you want a personal copy of Plan documents or related material, you should send a written request to the Plan Administrator. You will be charged only the actual cost of these copies.

You are entitled to receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plan. These individuals, called "fiduciaries," have an obligation to administer the Plan prudently and to act in the interest of Plan participants and beneficiaries. The named fiduciary for this Plan is the Plan Sponsor. No one, including the Employer or any other person, may fire a Covered Person or otherwise discriminate against a Covered Person in any way to prevent that person from obtaining a benefit or exercising their rights under ERISA.

When you become eligible for payments from the Plan, you should follow the appropriate steps for filing a claim. In case of claim denial, in whole or in part, you must receive a written explanation of the reason for the denial. You have the right to have your claim reviewed and reconsidered.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request materials from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide you the materials and pay you up to $110 per day until you receive your materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the Plan Administrator. If you have a claim for benefits which is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file a suit in a state or federal court provided you have exhausted the procedures and complied with the timeframes for review of the adverse claim decision provided below. If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse the Plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who should pay costs and legal fees. For example, if you are successful, the court may order the person you sued to pay those costs and fees. If you lose or if the court finds your suit to be frivolous, you may be ordered to pay these costs and fees.

If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, contact the nearest Area Office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, United States Department of Labor listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210.

CLAIMS DENIAL FOR DISABILITY INSURANCE

Notice of a decision to deny a claim (in whole or in part) shall be furnished to the claimant within 45 days following the receipt of the claim. Up to two extensions of 30 days each will be allowed for processing the claim for matters beyond the Plan's control or if additional information is needed from the claimant. If special circumstances require an extension of time for processing the claim, written notice of the extension shall be furnished to the claimant prior to the expiration of the initial 45 day period.

The notice of extension shall indicate the special circumstances requiring the extension and the date by which the notice of decision with respect to the claim is expected to be furnished. If a claim is denied (in whole or in part) notice shall be provided to the claimant in writing and shall set forth: 1) the reason(s) for the denial which must contain a complete discussion of why the claim was denied, including the basis for disagreeing with the views of medical or vocational experts whose advice was obtained either by the claimant or by the plan in connection with the denial; 2) the internal rules, guidelines, protocols, standards or other similar criteria of the plan that were relied on in denying a claim or a statement that none exists; 3) a statement that the claimant is entitled to receive, upon request, the entire claim file and other relevant documents; 4) reference to the provision(s) of the Plan on which the denial is based; 5) a description of any additional material or information necessary for the claimant to perfect the claim, if the claim was denied because the claimant failed to provide all necessary information, and an explanation of why such material or information is necessary; 6) an explanation of the claim review procedure. Notices must also be provided in a culturally and linguistically appropriate manner in certain situations. If written notice of the denial is not furnished to the claimant within 45 days (or if an extension was required, 105 days) from the date the claim was received, the claim shall be deemed denied and the claimant shall then be permitted to proceed with the procedure set forth below.

REVIEW OF DENIED CLAIMS AND COMPLAINT PROCEDURE FOR DISABILITY INSURANCE

If a covered person or any person claiming through a covered person wishes to have a denied claim reviewed, a written request must be sent to the address identified in the claim denial letter.

Any complaint or dispute related to review of denied claims shall be resolved in accordance with the procedure set forth by the Plan Sponsor and outlined below.

1. The complainant may contact the Insurance Carrier's service representative in an attempt to resolve the complaint in an informal manner.
2. If the complainant is not satisfied with any attempts at informal resolution, the complainant must submit a written request for review of a denied claim or a written notice of the complaint or dispute to the address identified on the claim denial letter within 180 days of receipt of the claim denial notice. The complainant may submit supporting documentation or information to be considered. The complainant must submit any requested additional information or documents.
3. A written notice of the final decision will usually be sent to the complainant within 45 days of receipt of the written request for review of a denied claim or notice of a complaint or dispute. However, if special circumstances require an extension of time to reach a final decision, written notice of the final decision will be sent as soon as possible following the expiration of the initial 45 day period, but no later than 90 days following receipt of the request for review of a denied claim or notice of a complaint or dispute. If special circumstances require such an extension of time, written notice of the extension shall be furnished to the complainant prior to the expiration of the initial 45 day period. The written notice of the final decision must give specific reason(s) for the decision and include the above-referenced information set out above in the Claim Denial For Disability Insurance Section, items 1-4. A description of any applicable contractual limitations period and its expiration date must also be included. If the final written decision is not furnished to the complainant within 45 days (or if an extension was required, 90 days) from the date of receipt of the request for review of a denied claim or notice of a complaint or dispute, the request for review or the complaint or dispute shall be deemed to be rejected and denied on review. Notices must also be provided in a culturally and linguistically appropriate manner in certain situations.

4. Prior to the decision on appeal, the Plan must also provide any new or additional evidence or rationale that were not included at the denial stage and give the claimant notice and a fair opportunity to respond.
