Professional Designations

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) Professional

The CFP® is issued by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. Prerequisites require a candidate to hold a Bachelor's degree (or higher) from an accredited college or university as well as three years of full-time personal financial planning experience. In addition, candidates must complete a CFP-board registered program (or hold an accepted designation, degree or license) and pass the CFP Certification examination. To maintain certification, the designee is required to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years and continue to agree to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

Christopher T. Jennings does not have any disciplinary action to report. Public information concerning his registration as an investment advisor representative may be found by accessing the SEC's public disclosure site at www.adviserinfo.sec.gov.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Christopher T. Jennings is a licensed insurance agent, and in such capacity may recommend, on a fully disclosed commission basis, the purchase of certain insurance products. A conflict of interest exists to the extent that Christopher T. Jennings may recommend the purchase of insurance products where he receives insurance commissions or other additional compensation. Titleist has procedures in place to ensure that any recommendations made by its associates are in the best interest of clients regardless of any additional compensation earned.

Christopher T. Jennings is a registered representative of Titleist Capital, LLC, a FINRA-registered broker-dealer and affiliate of Titleist Asset Management, LLC. Titleist Capital is a financial services company engaged in the sale of investment products. Titleist Asset Management professionals who effect transactions for advisory clients may receive transaction or commission compensation from Titleist Capital. The recommendation of securities transactions for commission creates a conflict of interest in that Titleist Asset Management is economically incented to effect securities transactions for clients. Although Titleist Asset Management strives to put its clients' interests first, such recommendations may be viewed as being in the best interests of Titleist Asset Management rather than in the client's best interest. Titleist Asset Management advisory clients are not compelled to effect securities transactions through Titleist Capital.

Christopher T. Jennings is also a member of his local Homeowners association, for which he receives no additional compensation.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Christopher T. Jennings receives additional compensation through his business activities described in Item 4 above, unless otherwise noted.

Item 6: Supervision

Supervision of Christopher T. Jennings is performed by Dave Smidebush, Chief Operating Officer, through reviews of internal transaction and security holdings reports, electronic and physical correspondence, and other internal reports as mandated by the firm and its regulatory authorities. Mr. Smidebush can be reached at 726-201-3224.
