Brantley County Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan Update Kickoff Public Hearing

To include Brantley County, and the cities of Hoboken and Nahunta and all unincorporated areas of the county for a Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan Update. The Brantley County Emergency Management Agency (EMA), in collaboration with the Southern Georgia Regional Commission (SGRC), invites the public to attend the Kickoff Public Hearing to discuss the Brantley County Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan and provide an opportunity for public comment. The plan update is being developed in accordance with the Disaster Mitigation Act of 2000 that requires local governments to have an approved Hazard Mitigation Plan addressing natural hazards as a condition of receiving future federal disaster mitigation assistance. The SGRC staff will host a Kickoff Public Hearing on November 19, at 6 p.m. at the Board of Commissioners located at 33 Allen Road, Nahunta, GA 31553.

Comments are being accepted by email at swibell@sgrc.us or by mailing them to Brantley HMP, 1937 Carlton Adams Drive, Valdosta, GA 31601. The previous Plan is available on the SGRC website at:
