Developmental ladder: Monitor or Refer

Motor & sensory skills, ages 0-15 months

	Yellow Flags Confident Beginnings & Revisit	Red Flags Refer to PT/ OT Now
	Yellow flags automatically become red flags if present in an older age range than listed
0-2 months	• Limited visual tracking • Poor tummy time tolerance • Asymmetric resting posture	• No eye contact • Excessive floppiness or stiffness • Constant irritability
3-5 months	• Prefrence for one side • Cannot bring hands to midline • Not rolling • Head lag when pulled to sit	• Persistent fisting • No head control • Cannot push up in tummy time • Stiffening of legs when held standing • Persistent asymmetric hand use
6-8 months	• Asymmetric crawling pattern • Difficulty moving in/out of sitting • Not reaching consistently • Mild sensitivity to textures	• Not sitting independently • Does not bear weight on legs • Cannot transfer item hand-to-hand • Strong gagging/ aversion to textures
9-11 months	• Not cruising along furniture • Difficulty with pincer grasp • Poor sitting balance/ unable to protect self when falling	• Strong preference for one hand • Does not stand up holding on • Does not crawl • No response to simple gestures
12-15 months	• Toe walking less than half the time • Not self-feeding • Trips/ falls easily • Marked clumsiness	• Loss of previously acquired skills • Not walking independently • Cannot grasp small objects • Toe walks most of the time • Lack of social reciprocity
	Send to Confident Beginnings	Send to Moving & Grooving PT

Have questions? Text or call us to get clarity.
(480) 269- 0173

BEGINNINGS

PEDIATRIC PHYSICAL THERAPY