3. Website Content Is for General Information

The information on this website is provided for general informational and educational purposes only. Website content should not be interpreted as personalized investment, tax, legal, accounting, insurance, retirement, estate planning, or financial advice unless you have entered into a specific written engagement with IWS covering that service. Any examples, articles, calculators, worksheets, checklists, webinar materials, downloadable resources, blog posts, videos, podcasts, or social media references are educational in nature and may not apply to your specific circumstances.

4. No Client Relationship Created by Website Use

Using this website, submitting a contact form, downloading a resource, joining a webinar, scheduling an introductory call, subscribing to email updates, or communicating with IWS electronically does not create an investment advisory, tax preparation, insurance, financial planning, or fiduciary client relationship. A client relationship is created only when IWS accepts an engagement in writing and all required agreements, disclosures, forms, and onboarding requirements have been completed.

5. Investment Advisory Disclosures

Investment advisory services involve risk, including the possible loss of principal. Past performance is not a guarantee of future results. No strategy, plan, allocation, product, insurance solution, tax strategy, or investment recommendation can guarantee a profit, prevent a loss, or ensure achievement of any financial goal. Nothing on this website is an offer to buy or sell any security or a solicitation of any investment advisory service in any jurisdiction where such offer, solicitation, or service would be unlawful. Where applicable, additional information about IWS, including services, fees, conflicts of interest, and disciplinary information, is available in the firm's Form ADV Part 2A brochure and related disclosures. Website visitors are encouraged to review applicable disclosures before entering into an advisory relationship.

6. Tax, Accounting, and Legal Information

IWS may provide tax planning and tax preparation services under separate engagements. General tax content on the website is not individualized tax advice and should not be relied upon as a substitute for an engagement-specific analysis. IWS does not provide legal advice. Estate planning, business formation, trust, contract, employment, and legal matters should be reviewed with a licensed attorney. Where appropriate, IWS may coordinate with your legal, tax, or other professionals with your permission.

7. Insurance and Product Information

Insurance-related information on this website is educational and general in nature. Availability, suitability, underwriting approval, premiums, policy terms, riders, benefits, exclusions, limitations, and guarantees vary by carrier, product, state, and client circumstances. Insurance guarantees are backed by the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company and are subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable policy or contract.

8. Educational Materials, Books, Courses, Webinars, and Workbooks

IWS may offer books, journals, workbooks, templates, courses, webinars, digital downloads, masterclasses, workshops, and related educational resources. These materials are designed for education and personal organization and are not a substitute for personalized advice. You may not copy, resell, reproduce, distribute, teach, publish, modify, or create derivative works from IWS materials without written permission.

9. Testimonials, Reviews, and Client Experiences

Testimonials, reviews, endorsements, and client stories appearing on the website reflect the experience of the individuals providing them. They may not represent the experience of all clients and are not a guarantee of future performance, results, savings, income, tax outcomes, investment returns, or financial success. Where required, IWS will provide disclosures regarding whether a testimonial or endorsement was given by a client, whether compensation was provided, and any material conflicts of interest. IWS does not guarantee that any person will achieve similar outcomes.

10. Scheduling, Consultations, and Communications

The website may allow you to schedule consultations, strategy calls, webinars, or other meetings. Submitting scheduling information does not guarantee acceptance as a client or availability of services.
