

The Legend of the Flying Dutchman

For centuries, 'ghost ship' folklore has haunted those who dare to go forth into the mysterious and dangerous seas. The fear of phantom ships was a very real part of maritime heritage, and to this day, persists in the culture of modern sailors. Pirates, bloody mutinies, deathly plagues, denizens of the deep, sea monsters and other unexplained occurrences have shaped the very fabric of nautical history. The Flying Dutchman is a legendary ghost ship doomed never to make port and destined to sail the oceans forever. Sightings in the 19th and 20th centuries reported the ship to be glowing with ghostly light. If hailed by another ship, the crew of the Flying Dutchman would try to send messages to land or to people long dead. In ocean lore, the sight of this phantom ship is a portent of doom. The tale portrays the vessel proceeding in stormy weather until it came to the Cape of Good Hope under the duress of treacherous seas attempting to get into safe harbor, but she could not get a pilot to conduct her and was, thus, lost. Ever since her disappearance, it is said, visions of her appear in very bad weather. Superstition of sailors recount the Dutchman assailed by violent tempests. The Dutch Captain, Barnard Fokke, is said to be the model for the Captain of the ghost ship. He was renowned for the speed of his trips from the Netherlands to Java and was suspected of being in league with the devil. The crew of the vessel was supposed to have been guilty of some dreadful crime early on in their last voyage, subsequent to which they were stricken with pestilence and ordained to traverse the oceans, on which they perished, until the period of their penance expired. The poet, Thomas Moore, in passing Deadman's Island in the Gulf of

St. Lawrence, wrote:

*Fast gliding along a gloomy
bark her sails are full though the wind is still,
and there blows not a breath her sails to fill.*

The supernatural apparitions of the ship are considered by mariners as the worst of all possible omens. Every now and again sailors report seeing the Flying Dutchman on the horizon. It is said to be a symbol of imminent doom or danger known as the Curse of the Flying Dutchman.

Terry Carlson—Commodore

My time as Commodore is coming to an end. As I look back on the past year, October's election was held outside due to the Covid-19 outbreak. Then came the October historic ice storm, which left trees damaged and power outages statewide. However, with Membership and Board support, OCBC accomplished several things, foremost being the new Centerboard/Youth building. Also, grass sod was installed, dock boards replaced, an additional smoker/BBQ with pad and sidewalk and a general cleanup of Clubhouse and grounds.

A very special acknowledgment to my Rear Commodore, Glede Holman. Without his untiring effort during the past year, we could not have accomplished these things.

Also, thanks to my Vice Commodore, David Archibald, for all the work he and Becky have done this past year.

And appreciation to the rest of my OCBC Board of Governors: Secretary, Jake Langthorn; Treasurer, Danny White; Treasurer-Elect, Scott Greenawalt; Board Members, Karl Benzer, Jim Blakewell, Charlie Shafer and Past Commodore, Craig Bilodeau.

Also, thanks to all of this year's Committee chairs, all of which have devoted much time and effort.

Last but not least, gratitude to the Membership of OCBC, for allowing me to have been your Commodore for 2021.

Happy sailing, Terry Carlson, Commodore

Perpetual Trophies Request

If you have one of our annual perpetual trophies at your home or office, please return it to the OCBC Clubhouse the next time you are there on or before the October club meeting on Thursday, October 14. We would like to get all of them updated for the Banquet in November and appreciate your help.

Thanks for a wonderful year serving you as Commodore and for your help in getting the trophies to the clubhouse.

VICE COMMODORE—David Archibald

We have come to the end of another OCBC Sailing season and Board year. I have spent some time reflecting on what we have accomplished as a club this year and cannot imagine what it would have been without the incredible members we have in our club.

This year and each year, the main project for the Vice Commodore is on the Lighthouse Charities. 2021 has been a great year for LCI. We have replaced the training fleet with 10 new RS Zests, raised a significant amount of money, and held our annual regatta.

This was not an undertaking that could have happened without the incredible support of the Lighthouse Committee:

Becky Archibald
Skip and Lisa Price
Ann Kilpatrick
Charlie and Michelle Shafer
Ali Charlton
Scott Greenawalt
And all of the club members for their continued support.

Lighthouse also acquired a new home on an old location with the construction of OCBC's new Centerboard Pavilion. The new facility provides room for storage and covered areas for instruction during camps and classes, as well as, the ability to work on boats inside during inclement weather. It will be exciting to see what LCI can accomplish with their new training facility.

Rear Commodore—Glede Holman.

rear-commodore@okcboatclub.com

What a month! The membership of OCBC never ceases to amaze me. The work effort that went into preparation for the VX-1 North American Championship was incredible.

Last month's work party had 14 major projects scheduled. All were achieved, including the unloading of the shipping containers, with a few unplanned projects being completed as well. Thank you to all who made these accomplishments possible.

Without question, we have had a good year. Numerous events and situations, from weather to COVID, challenged us, but we were able to adapt and overcome.

Many of you may know our front entry gate was hit and knocked off of its tracks last Sunday afternoon. Thanks to Scott Law and others for getting it back up and to Ric Drennen for the necessary repair. Also, thanks to Robbin Phillips for getting the east hoist sprayer hose repaired.

As my Rear Commodore year draws to a close I'll point out that I didn't get all of my planned projects completed, but then again the month isn't over yet. Everything that has been accomplished was a solid team effort. I truly thank everyone for their cooperation, assistance, and counsel.

Ladies Sailing—Anita Endres

Another great summer of sailing quickly passed by this year, but we are still sailing!! Ladies' Saturday morning sailing will continue through the fall providing there is good weather. We will sail on keel boats starting at 12 noon and everyone is invited. Come and learn, teach, practice and share your skills!

Kudos to Danielle Higginbotham who went to Vermont for the J-24 US Nationals in September. The boat she was on was sponsored by US Sailing. What a great adventure for her as she continues to enhance her sailing experiences!! Also Kudos to Lynn Pinegar. Despite much of her time being taken up with camps this summer, she managed to come and race on Tuesday nights and win Lady of the Lake on her Laser!

Many thanks to all the ladies who helped with the North American VX regatta in September. Special thanks to Michelle Powell-Shafer who organized all the volunteers and helped with RC and dinners, Kelly Cole who took time off from Olympics training to compete in the regatta and worked hard behind the scenes to coordinate registration forms, awards, design the t-shirt, and purchase food. Becky Archibald, Donna Law and Danielle Higginbotham helped with RC and Sandra Baskerville helped with registration and went the extra mile to lend her bicycle to a visiting female competitor who rode around the lake several times. Thanks also to Ann Kilpatrick who did the scoring and to Cathy Conner, Gloria Garrison, Ignacia White, Sally Cole and all who helped with meals, clean-up and other duties during the regatta. We received a lot of positive feedback from the competitors about OCBC.

Starting October 8th we will continue with our 6:30 pm Friday night Yoga classes with Nova. Cost is a donation of whatever fits your budget. This is a beginners class and is a great way to improve balance, flexibility and mental health. Everyone is welcome to join us. Bring your own mat!

One last thing, on Saturday October 23rd, the Kilpatrick Collegiate Regatta will take place at OCBC from 9 am-5 pm. Come out to watch and cheer on the collegiate sailors!!

Enjoy the cooler weather and hope to see you on the water!

OCBC YOUTH RACE AT DALLAS CORINTHIAN YACHT CLUB OCTOBER 8-9

OCBC was represented by six kids for the “Pirates of the Corinthian” at DCYC at Lake Dallas. Saturday was breezy with puffs in the high teens and pretty large waves if you’re in an Opti. All the kids sailed despite the high winds. The RWB fleet sailed seven races on Saturday ... A lot of racing! Sunday was even sportier with puffs in the 20’s and big waves. Our Youth participants were: Brice Howard, Blake Howard, Noah Cina, Boyd Charlton, Blythe Charlton, and Sam Rihn.

Brice Howard, 2nd place Opti Red Fleet, 7th overall

Blake Howard 13th Place Opti Green fleet

Noah Cina, 9th place Opti Blue Fleet, 13th overall

Boyd Charlton 15th place Opti Blue Fleet, 20th overall

Blythe Charlton, 3rd Place Opti White, 21st overall

COMMODORE'S CUP UPDATE

Submitted by Becky Archibald. Commodore's Cup Chair

September 11-12, 2021

The 2021 Commodore's Cup brought a fantastic weekend of sailing. We kicked off the weekend with a Competitor's Racing Seminar by Bayless Kirtley, followed by a dinner for the competitors. Our Commodore told us all of the history of the Commodore's Cup and our PRO, Mike Anderson, reminded us of the Corinthian Spirit of competition. The winds were a bit high on Saturday, so we postponed until Sunday ... best decision ever! The winds were perfect and the competitors were in top form. The point leading out of the harbor became spectator central.

The event took a village and it couldn't have been done without our wonderful volunteers: RC: Mike Anderson, Donna Law, Bill Graham and Steve Connor; Judge Boat: Richard Walford, Scott Law and Michelle Shafer; Mark Boat: David Archibald, Austin Sterling and Terry Carlson; Safety Boat: Glede Holman and Jake Langthorn and Amie Wilson. Thanks to Gary Derrick, David Robinson and David Wood for loaning us their Sonars and Sails for the weekend. Hats off to our fleet champions and their crew:

J22: Scott Greenawalt—2nd
