

POSTER PRESENTATION

RUBRICS AND EVALUATION FORM

CRITERIA	1 Needs Improvement	2 Developing	3 Satisfactory	4 Good	5 Excellent
CONTENT AND CLARITY Is the language used clear, detailed and easy to understand?	The poster includes very little information. The main idea is unclear. The English is difficult to understand.	The poster includes some relevant information, but the ideas are unclear. Some of the English is difficult to understand.	The poster presents a clear topic with some basic information that is easy to understand.	The poster presents interesting and relevant information with clear details and examples. The Student uses a variety of vocabulary and sentence structures.	The poster explores the topic in a thoughtful, and memorable way. The student's ideas are conveyed through detailed explanations with a high level of English fluency.
ORGANIZATION AND FLOW Is the design and layout easy to follow, making the message and information clear?	There is no title or headings. The information is not organized. There are no complete thoughts. The poster is difficult to understand.	The information does not clearly match the title or headings.	There is a title and clear headings. The information is separated into sections with proper headlines that are easy to see.	The poster is well organized and easy to follow. Ideas connect clearly and support the headlines and the main topic.	The poster is exceptionally clear and well structured. Ideas flow naturally and help the audience understand the topic fully.
VISUAL DESIGN Does the poster design create interest in the topic?	The visuals do not clearly support the topic. The poster is not captivating.	Some parts of the poster support the topic, but the text, images, or layout are sometimes unclear.	The poster is neat and readable. The text and visuals help communicate the main ideas.	The poster is attractive, well organized, and easy to read. The visuals add useful information and support the presentation.	The poster is creative, polished, and visually captivating. The text, images, and layout work together to communicate the ideas effectively.
PRESENTATION AND ENGAGEMENT Does the student effectively connect with the audience?	The presentation is difficult to understand. The student is difficult to hear. The student has difficulty speaking in complete sentences.	The student communicates some ideas clearly but speaks quietly, mumbles, reads frequently, or has limited connection with the audience.	The student speaks clearly enough to communicate the main ideas and shows some confidence and connection with the audience.	The student speaks clearly and confidently, uses the poster effectively, and keeps the audience interested.	The student presents with confidence, enthusiasm, and strong audience connection. Their voice, expression, and use of the poster were highly engaging.

SCORING

Circle a score (1-5) for each criterion.

Total Possible Points: 20

/ 20

NOTES: