RUBRICS AND EVALUATION FORM

CRITERIA	1 Needs Improvement	2 Developing	3 Satisfactory	4 Good	5 Excellent
STORY and IDEAS Is the story clear, interesting, and enjoyable to read?	I found the story difficult to follow or very limited in ideas.	I understood the main idea, but some parts were confusing.	I thought the story was clear and complete enough to follow easily.	I thought the story was well developed and kept me interested.	I found the story highly engaging, memorable, or emotionally effective.
LANGUAGE and CREATIVE VOICE Does the English tell the story clearly and show the student's own voice?	I found the English difficult to understand, with little personal expression.	I thought the meaning was mostly clear, but the language or creative expression was limited.	I found the English clear and accurate, with some personal or creative touches.	I thought the language was effective and the student's personality or imagination came through clearly.	I found the English natural and expressive, with a distinctive voice that made the story special.
VISUAL STORYTELLING Do the illustrations help tell the story?	I felt the illustrations were a little random or only loosely connected to the story.	I thought the illustrations supported some parts of the story.	I thought the illustrations clearly matched and supported the story.	I thought the illustrations added expression, detail, and personality.	I felt the illustrations really enhanced the story and made it clear and memorable.
BOOK DESIGN & READER EXPERIENCE Do the cover, text, pictures, and layout work well together?	I found that the layout or text placement made the book difficult to read or follow.	I thought some parts worked well, but the design or readability was inconsistent.	I found the book clear, readable, and well organized.	I thought the cover, text, pictures, and layout worked together smoothly.	I felt the whole book was polished, cohesive, and especially enjoyable to read.
