Demo Stage Ave Return

Month 1 average return = 1.1%

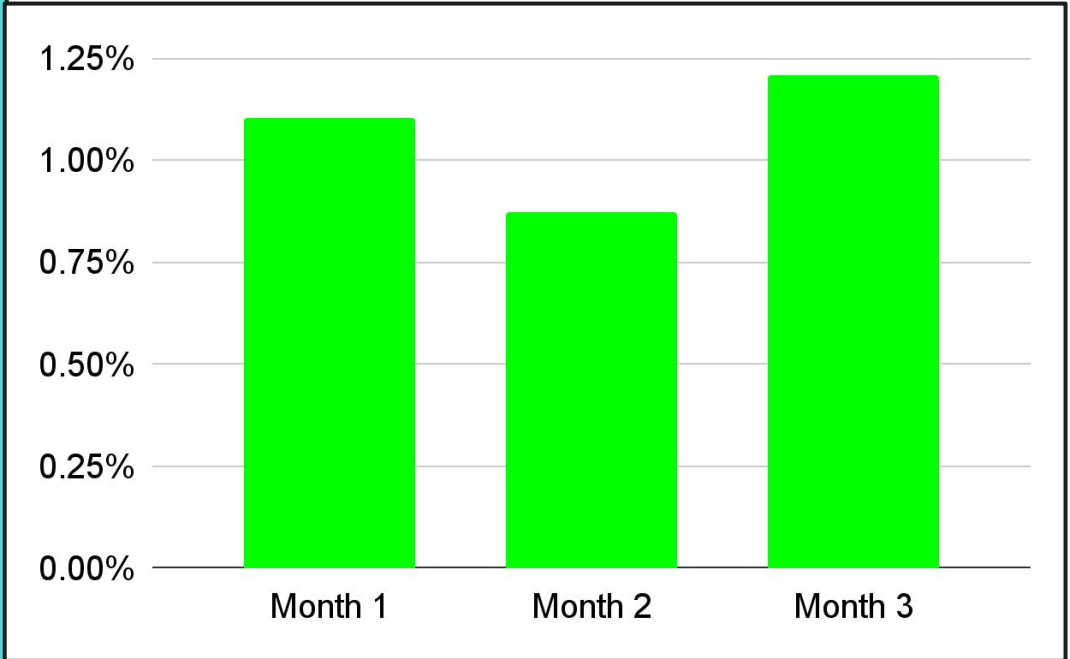

Early excitement and fresh setups often lead to solid first-month numbers. Traders are applying what they've just learned in a low-pressure environment, so discipline tends to hold up.

Month 2 average return = 0.87%

Slight dip is typical: traders start experimenting or stretching risk once they feel comfortable.

Month 3 average return = 1.21%

After testing limits in month 2, many settle into consistent routines and improve position sizing.

Live Stage Ave Return

Month 1 average return = 0.04%

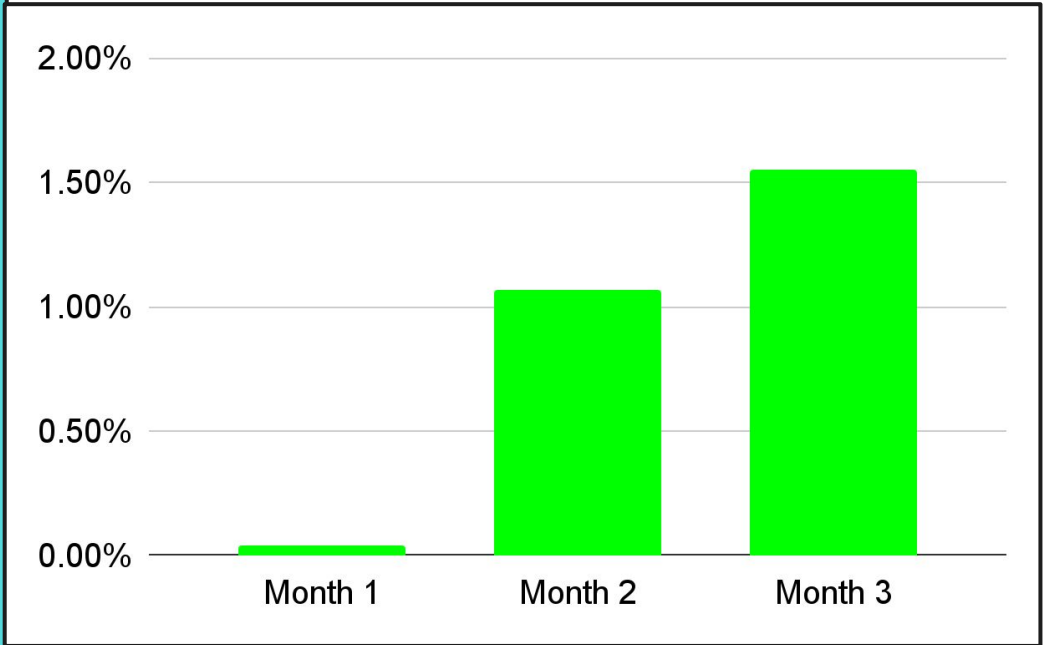

First exposure to real capital likely triggers psychology changes: hesitation, premature exits, or over-correction.

Month 2 average return = 1.07%

Most traders begin to regain rhythm and confidence. Improved execution and adherence to rules bring the group back to positive territory.

Month 3 average return = 1.55%

Strongest growth as experience compounds. Traders who survived the first two months typically have better risk control and filter out early mistakes.

A Special Mention to Gert Van Riessen

Huge congratulations to Gert for passing a funded account. That's a serious achievement. It takes structured decision-making, controlled risk, and the ability to stay consistent when it matters most and Gert delivered. Disciplined process wins. Well done Gert!

Just minutes ago, I achieved what I was learning all the time into skool. How to become a 6 figure trader. It was a long and most of the times not enjoyfull journey, but I did it. I have become a 6 figure trader. And what @Simon Pullen taught me in his FF when that still accisted, if I can do it, everybody can. I just had to do it, and show it was possible.. And I did. Thanks a million also to @Denislav Dantev for being patient with me when I joined his every day course (when that existed - don't know if he's doing it still every day).

So if you ever, ever doubt yourself, If I can do it, everybody can, because I could. I am still svibering, because I got goose bums all over my body, while I am cooking dinner for the hungry wolves over here. Those are just the first initial thoughts which came up to me. Will sit down a bit later, and overthing it in how I can get you all the same way. All the love....

GO GET IT!!!!

(p.s. I was not able to put this post in skool, so I just put it here. Stay in there folks! This is the greatest course on earth!)
