

What is in this eGuide

Part 1 – Birds in Your Yard, Neighborhood, and Park Who Regularly Come to Feeders – p7

The Five Most Common Birds – p. 11

- House Finch – p.12
- House (English) Sparrow – p. 16
- European Starling – p. 22
- Blue Jay – p. 27
- Mourning Dove – p. 32

The Smallest Birds – p. 36

- Black-capped Chickadee and Carolina Chickadee – p. 36
- Tufted Titmouse – p. 40
- Black-crested Titmouse – p. 42
- White-breasted Nuthatch – p. 44
- Red-breasted Nuthatch – p. 47

The Finches – p. 52

- American Goldfinch – p. 52
- Lesser Goldfinch – p. 57
- House Finch – p. 65
- Purple Finch – p. 67
- Pine Siskin – p. 70
- Common Redpoll – p. 72

Simply Gorgeous Birds! – p. 78

- Indigo Bunting – p. 79
- Dark-eyed Junco – p. 87
- Northern Cardinal – p. 90
- Rose-breasted Grosbeak – p. 97
- Blue Jay – p. 103

The Doves – p. 104

- Mourning Dove – p. 104
- Eurasian Collared-Dove – p. 105
- White-winged Dove – p. 108
- Inca Dove – p. 110

The Woodpeckers – p. 115

- Downy Woodpecker – p. 115
- Red-bellied Woodpecker – p. 118
- Red-headed Woodpecker – p. 121
- Golden-fronted Woodpecker – p. 124
- Ladder-backed Woodpecker – p. 128

The Sparrows – p. 133

Unstreaked Breasts:

- Chipping Sparrows – p. 135
- American Tree Sparrow – p. 137
- House (English) Sparrow – p. 140
- White-throated Sparrow – p. 146
- White-crowned Sparrow – p. 150

Streaked Breasts:

- Song Sparrow – p. 153
- Fox Sparrow – p. 157

Black Birds and Blackbirds – p. 161

- Brown-headed Cowbird – p. 163
- Red-winged Blackbird – p. 167
- European Starling – p. 170
- Common Grackle – p. 172
- Boat-tailed Grackle – p. 176
- Great-tailed Grackle – p. 179
- American Crow – p. 186

Gorgeous Birds! But with Special Feeders – p. 190

- Ruby-throated Hummingbird – p. 190
- Eastern Bluebird – p. 193
- Baltimore Oriole – p. 199

Hawks that Prey on Songbirds – p. 207

- Cooper's Hawk – p. 209
- Sharp-shinned Hawk – p. 212

Part 2 – Birds Who Will Live in Your Neighborhood or Park, But Rarely or Never Come to Feeders – p. 218

The Wrens – p. 219

- Northern House Wren – p. 219
- Carolina Wren – p. 224

The Singers!!! – p. 230

Northern Mockingbird – p. 230

Gray Catbird – p. 235

Brown Thrasher – p. 237

The Sharply Dressed Birds – p. 241

Eastern Towhee – p. 241

Cedar Waxwing – p. 247

A Woodpecker – p.251

Northern Flicker – p. 251

The Warblers – p.256

Yellow-rumped Warbler – p. 257

Pine Warbler – p. 261

The Owls – p. 263

Great Horned Owl – p.265

Barred Owl – p.268

Charts Comparing Similar Birds

Nuthatches – p. 50

Males: Lesser Goldfinch, American Goldfinch in breeding plumage, Evening Grosbeak – p. 61

Female and nonbreeding male American Goldfinch, female Lesser Goldfinch, female Evening Grosbeak – p. 63

Male House Finch, male Purple Finch, Pine Siskin, Common Redpoll – p. 74

Female Northern Cardinal, Tufted Titmouse, female Pyrrhuloxia – p. 95

Females: Rose-breasted Grosbeak, House Finch, Purple Finch, Red-winged Blackbird – p.100

Comparing the Doves that Come to Feeders – p. 112

Red-bellied Woodpecker and Golden-fronted Woodpecker – p. 127

Males: Red-bellied Woodpecker, Golden-fronted Woodpecker, Ladder-backed Woodpecker, Yellow-bellied Sapsucker – p. 130

Comparing the Male House Sparrow to the Eurasian Tree Sparrow – p. 142

Female House Sparrow, Chipping Sparrow, American Tree Sparrow, White-throated Sparrow (brown and tan morph) – p. 144

Fox Sparrow and Brown Thrasher – p. 159

Males: Common Grackle, Boat-tailed Grackle, Great-tailed Grackle, Red-winged Blackbird, Brown-headed Cowbird – p. 183

Females: Common Grackle, Boat-tailed Grackle, Great-tailed Grackle, Red-winged Blackbird, Brown-headed Cowbird – p. 185

Eastern Bluebird, Indigo bunting, Mountain Bluebird, Blue Grosbeak – p. 197

Baltimore Oriole, Orchard Oriole, Bullock's Oriole, male American Redstart – p. 205

Cooper's Hawk, Sharp-shinned Hawk – p. 215

Northern House Wren, Carolina Wren, Bewick's Wren – p. 228

Eastern Towhee, male Orchard Oriole, American Robin – p. 245

Information Boxes on Related Topics

Yellow or Orange Feathers on a Male House Finch – p. 14

Mycoplasmal Conjunctivitis – House Finch eye Disease – p. 15

An Introduced Bird – p. 20

What are under-tail coverts? P. 28

Why are Blue Jay's Feathers Blue? - p. 29

A Distensible Esophagus – p. 30

Do Not Believe Everything You Read in a Field Guide is Set in Stone! – p. 34

A Sneaky Thief – p. 45

Irruptions – p. 48

Seed for Goldfinches – p. 55

Why Watch Behavior – p. 78

When is a crest a crest and not just raised feathers? p. 92

Submissive Behavior at a Feeder – p. 94

Misnomers – p. 120

What is a morph? P. 148

What is a subspecies? P. 148

If morphs have not been geographically isolated from the rest of their species, then how did they develop? – p. 148

The Color Rufous – ps. 158 and 243

Brown-headed Cowbird Nests – p. 165

What are birds trying to say? – p. 166

Subspecies of Common Grackles – p. 175

West Nile Virus – p. 189

Such a Beautiful Bird, Such a Foul Disposition – p. 191

Iridescence – p. 192

What is a Bluebird Trail? P. 196

Picky, Picky, Picky – p. 203

The ‘Most Handsome’ of all Hawk Eggs – p. 213

A Consummate Hunter – p. 213

Population Numbers of Sharp-shinned Hawks – p. 214

Wrens do Not Allow Other Birds to Nest Near Their Nests – p.220

Who gets to place things in the home? – p. 222

Putting Out the Welcome Mat – p. 226

Pushing Ranges Northward – p. 227

A Mockingbird has Chosen Your Backyard as Its Winter Territory – p. 234

Berry bingers – p. 250

Northern Flicker Taxonomy – p. 255

Flocks of Migrating Warblers – p. 260

A Great Horned Owl Can Break Your Heart – p. 266

Those ‘ears’ on top of the head if they aren’t the actual ears, then what are they?
And where are the actual ears? – p. 267