AFFILIATE TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Updated: November 9, 2026

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the Midlife Butterfly Affiliate Program. By taking part in this program, you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

PRODUCT INCLUDED

The only product in this Affiliate Program is the Stress-Less Holidays course, a 6-week group course, priced at $777 CAD. Both payment options count: paid in full or paid in two payments. The Affiliate Program does not apply to any other product or service.

WHO CAN BE AN AFFILIATE

The Affiliate Program is open only to participants of the Stress-Less Holidays course and to people Midlife Butterfly invites personally. Invited affiliates receive their unique affiliate link directly from Midlife Butterfly.

Affiliates who are participants must stay active in the Stress-Less Holidays course to receive commissions. If a participant cancels or leaves the course, or if their own payments are refunded, charged back or left unpaid, they are no longer eligible. Any commissions not yet paid to them are forfeited.

AFFILIATE COMMISSION

Affiliates earn a flat commission of $200 CAD for each new customer who signs up for the Stress-Less Holidays course through their unique affiliate link. It is your responsibility to make sure the customer uses your unique link at the time of sign-up.

Only sign-ups completed by Friday, November 27, 2026 at midnight ET, when registration closes, qualify.

Commissions are paid only when the customer's payments have been successfully processed and not refunded or charged back. No backdated commissions will be awarded.

QUALIFYING REFERRALS

The Affiliate Program exists to bring customers to the Stress-Less Holidays course. Past Midlife Butterfly clients qualify, as long as they have not already signed up for this course. You cannot refer yourself or a business you own, and you cannot use your own link to get a discount on your own sign-up. A commission is earned only for a customer who is unrelated to you.

PAYMENT TERMS

Commissions are paid on a net-30 basis, meaning there is a 30-day holding period after the commission is earned. A commission is earned when the customer's final payment is successfully processed. For customers on the two-payment plan, this is the second payment.

Commissions show as due at the end of the following month. They are then paid within the first five business days (Monday through Friday) of the month after that.

- If the customer's final payment is processed in November, the commission shows as due at the end of December and is paid within the first five business days of January 2027. For example, a customer who pays in full on November 27.
- If the customer's final payment is processed in December, the commission shows as due at the end of January and is paid within the first five business days of February 2027. For example, a customer whose second payment is processed on December 18.

Registration closes on November 27 and all second payments are due by December 18 at the latest. This means all commissions under this program are paid in January or February 2027. Payments are made by PayPal in Canadian dollars (CAD). If you live outside Canada, PayPal converts the amount at the current exchange rate, so the amount you receive may differ slightly.

You are responsible for giving Midlife Butterfly an accurate and up-to-date PayPal email address. You are requested to add it to the portal and your access will be provided via email. If you have not added it by the date your commission is due, your payment will be made once the correct details are received.

If PayPal cannot process a payout, Midlife Butterfly will contact you to agree on another payment method, such as an Interac e-Transfer or a bank transfer. Each side pays its own bank's fees. Any fees charged by your bank, or by an intermediary bank, are your responsibility.

REFUNDS AND COMMISSION ADJUSTMENTS

Midlife Butterfly does not typically offer refunds. If a refund or chargeback is processed before a commission is paid, no commission is paid for that sale. If it is processed after the commission was paid, the commission is voided. You will not be billed for it.

AFFILIATE OBLIGATIONS

Affiliates agree to promote Midlife Butterfly in a professional and ethical way. This means no spam, no misleading advertising and no false claims, including false claims about results, because outcomes are different for each person.

Affiliates must say clearly that they may earn a commission when someone signs up through their link. Affiliates also agree not to do anything that could damage the reputation of Midlife Butterfly, and to follow all applicable laws and regulations.

Marketing materials will be provided for promotion.

TERMINATION

The Affiliate Program ends when registration for the Stress-Less Holidays course closes on November 27, 2026. Midlife Butterfly may also end this agreement earlier at any time, with or without cause. In either case, all commissions earned up to that date will be paid according to these terms.

DISCLAIMER

Midlife Butterfly makes no guarantee about the success of the affiliate program. Your earnings depend on your own efforts and on how many people choose to join the Stress-Less Holidays course. By taking part in the Affiliate Program, you confirm that you have read, understood and agreed to these terms. Midlife Butterfly may change these terms at any time without prior notice.
