Your work helps financially protect Ohio consumers and their families.

Judith L. French, Director

You are also part of Ohio's dynamic and growing insurance industry and marketplace, which is one of the strongest and largest in the world.

Your work is vital to Ohio's economy and to the consumers that need your expertise when making decisions that impact their lives.

I have included some information to help you as an insurance professional:

- Report any change of address and/or contact information to the department immediately to ensure you continue receiving important information about your license.
- Before signing a contract with an insurance company or agency, verify that they are authorized and/or licensed to do business in Ohio.
- Keep up with important ODI news. Sign up for our Monthly Insurance Review newsletter.
- Insurance fraud and professional misconduct are illegal. Contact the department's Fraud and Enforcement Division or call 800-686-1527 to report suspected wrongdoing.
- For answers to questions regarding your insurance license and meeting your regulatory requirements, visit the department's Licensing Division web page or call 614-644-2665.

Let us work together to serve and protect Ohio insurance consumers.

Sincerely,

Judith L. French

Florida Department of Financial Services

Please Note: A licensee may only transact insurance with an active appointment by an eligible insurer or employer. If you are acting as a surplus lines agent, public adjuster, or reinsurance intermediary manager/broker, you should have an appointment recorded in your own name on file with the Department. If you are unsure of your license status you should contact the Florida Department of Financial Services immediately. This license will expire if more than 48 months elapse without an appointment for each class of insurance listed. If such expiration occurs, the individual will be required to re-qualify as a first-time applicant. If this license was obtained by passing a licensure examination offered by the Florida Department of Financial Services, the licensee is required to comply with continuing education requirements contained in 626.2815 or 648.385, Florida Statutes. A licensee may track their continuing education requirements completed or needed in their MyProfile account at https://dice.fldfs.com. To validate the accuracy of this license you may review the individual license record under "Licensee Search" on the Florida Department of Financial Services website at www.myfloridacfo.com/division/agents.
