If you are flying, you can package your supplies in a clear plastic bag with a note stating what they are for when you go through customs at the airport.

You can also bring whatever art supplies you would like to use, these are just the suggestions of what I will be using.

Attention: AIRLINE INSPECTORS

THANK YOU in advance for keeping us safe. This is a professional ARTISTS PAINT KIT.

It contains VEGETABLE -BASED OIL PAINTS and WET PAINTINGS. TAKE CARE when inspecting to prevent getting paint on clothing. All of these paints have a flashpoint ABOVE 550°. They are NOT HAZARDOUS and NOT FLAMMABLE. There are NO SOLVENTS in this kit. Please DO NOT DISCARD PAINTS as they are expensive.

If you need to reach me to confirm, my contact is:

Name: _____

Phone: _____

This is a note that you can include with your supplies in a zip locked bag in your luggage, so that the inspectors know what it is. Do not bring your art supplies in your carryon.

The object isn't to make art, it's to be in that wonderful state where art is inevitable.
