

Roles in the Studio

Performance & Creative

- Actors & Voice Artists: For stage, film, and radio drama productions.
- Directors & Assistant Directors: Leading the vision for various media.
- Acting Coaches/Tutors: Running workshops for different age groups and skill levels.
- Scriptwriters & Playwrights: Developing original local stories and adaptations.

Technical & Production

- Filming & Cinematography: Camera operators, lighting technicians, and DPs for film projects.
- Sound Mixing & Engineering: Capturing clean audio on set and mixing radio plays or podcasts.
- Video Editors: Handling post-production, color grading, and visual effects.
- Live Sound & Lighting Techs: Managing the technical requirements for stage performances at The Flavel.

Artistic Design

- Set Designers & Builders: Creating physical environments for stage and screen.
- Prop Masters: Sourcing and creating the specific items needed for each scene.
- Costume Designers: Designing and maintaining the wardrobe for various eras.
- Makeup Artists (MUA): Handling everything from standard stage makeup to specialized SFX/character makeup.

Business & Operations

- Fundraising & Grant Writers: Identifying and securing funding from arts councils, donors, and sponsors.
- Marketing & Social Media Managers: Promoting shows, managing the brand, and building the community.
- Production Coordinators: Managing schedules, locations, and logistics.
- Front of House & Box Office: Managing ticket sales and audience experience.

Support Services

- Catering & Craft Service: Providing meals and refreshments for cast and crew during long rehearsal or shoot days and public events.
- Studio/Facility Managers: Maintaining the physical space and equipment.
- Legal & Rights Management: Handling licensing for plays and music, as well as talent contracts, risk and compliance.