Presenting:
Chris Skillicorn - Care Manager

Chris Skillicorn hails from the Isle of Man "The Jewel of the Irish Sea!" nestled in between England, Ireland, Scotland, and Wales. Chris moved to Edinburgh, Scotland to pursue a career in the hospitality industry, as he always knew from a young age, that people were his passion. The hospitality industry qualifications led him to embark on the Princess Cruise lines for 15 years as a food and Beverage officer where he traveled around the world several times providing a vast array of experiences. In the early 2,000's, Chris's father was diagnosed with Dementia/Alzheimer's so Chris left his position from

The Heart of Healthcare: Celebrating National Social Work Month ❤

Every March, we come together to recognize and celebrate Social Work Month, a time dedicated to honoring the invaluable contributions of social workers in our communities. These compassionate professionals play a crucial role in advocating for individuals and families, providing essential support, and helping people navigate life's most challenging circumstances. The Impact of Social Workers Social workers serve in various settings, including hospitals, schools, nursing homes, mental health

Dear Readers,
As we welcome the month of March, we have exciting stories to share with you! This month, we celebrate the heart of healthcare during National Social Work Month, explore the benefits of pet-friendly therapy in nursing homes, embrace the spirit of St. Patrick's Day, and introduce you to our Meet Your Team feature, highlighting Chris Skillicorn!
Social workers are the heart of healthcare, providing vital support and advocacy. This month, we recognize their dedication to improving lives. We also highlight how pet-friendly therapy is making a difference in nursing homes, bringing comfort, joy, and even health benefits to residents. With St. Patrick's Day around the corner, we honor its traditions of luck, legacy, and togetherness. Speaking of Irish connections, we're excited to introduce Chris Skillicorn, who hails from the Isle of Man, the "Jewel of the Irish Sea." His background in hospitality and personal experience caring for his father with Alzheimer's make him a compassionate and dedicated Care Manager.

Wishing you a wonderful March filled with joy and good health!
