1. What cookies are

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help the website work properly, improve your experience, and provide information to the site owner.

2. How we use cookies

We use cookies and similar technologies to:

- make the website work properly
- remember your cookie preferences
- understand how the website is used so we can improve it

Some cookies are set by us, and some may be set by third parties whose services we use.

3. Types of cookies we use

3.1 Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are required for the website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions you take, such as setting your privacy preferences.

3.2 Analytics cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors use our website (for example, which pages are visited and how people move around the site). We use this information to improve performance and user experience.

We use Google Analytics, which may set cookies such as:

Cookie name	Provider	Purpose	Typical duration
_ga	Google Analytics	Used to distinguish users for analytics reporting.	About 2 years
_ga_V9C L08XXV5	Google Analytics	Used to persist session state and support analytics reporting for the Google Analytics property.	About 2 years

Cookie durations can vary depending on configuration.

3.3 Marketing cookies (if enabled)

If we use marketing or advertising technologies in the future, these cookies may be used to measure the effectiveness of campaigns and/or personalise advertising. Where required, we will ask for your consent before setting these cookies.

3.4 Tag management (if enabled)

We may use a tag management tool (such as Google Tag Manager) to manage website tags and scripts. Tag management tools do not typically set cookies by themselves, but they can be used to deploy other tools that do.

4. Cookie consent and choices

When you visit our website, you can choose to Accept or Decline non-essential cookies via the cookie banner.

You can also control cookies through your browser settings. Most browsers let you:

- see what cookies are stored
- delete cookies
- block cookies for specific sites
- block all cookies

If you block some cookies, parts of the site may not work as intended.

5. Managing cookies in your browser

Cookie settings are usually found in your browsers Settings or Preferences menu. You can also use the Help function in your browser for instructions.

6. Updates to this Cookie Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes to the cookies we use or for legal and regulatory reasons. The Last updated date at the top shows when it was most recently changed.

7. Contact
