Supervision Agreement

Supervision of outdoor play is agreed upon by the parent and caregiver, as set out in this agreement.

Every child under the age of 5 years shall be directly supervised by the caregiver at all times, both indoors and outdoors. Directly supervised means that the caregiver can see the child and is close enough to protect the child from harm.

Children may accompany the caregiver on child-focused excursions and outings within Waterloo and the surrounding area, as planned as part of the day's program.

Please initial: I understand that these outings may include trips to a park or natural area where the children may play at or near the water's edge of a creek, stream or pond.

Initial: _____

Transportation for these outings will be any manner of public or private transportation that the caregiver chooses. Children transported in private automobiles will be restrained in the correct method for their age and weight in accordance with federal and provincial standards and legislation.

Any activities outside the Waterloo area will be agreed upon separately by the parent and caregiver in writing.

The above-named child can attend community pools with the caregiver, provided that the pool has certified lifeguards on duty:
