PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

*A*s my year as President of NAWIC Fort Worth Chapter 1 comes to a close, I'm feeling incredibly grateful—and a little sentimental!

This year has been full of great events, new connections, plenty of laughs, and so many moments that reminded me why I love this chapter. I'm proud of what we've accomplished together and, most of all, grateful for the women who make this chapter so special.

Now it's time to look ahead! I'm excited to see what the new year brings—new ideas, new opportunities, new friendships, and new ways for our chapter to grow and make a difference.

To our incoming leadership team, I'm cheering you on and can't wait to see where you take us. And to all of our members, thank you for making this year such a memorable one.

With gratitude,

Lori Donnell, CBT, CIT, CDT, CIS
2025-2026 President (Ask me what these mean!)

Business Meeting Question of the Month:
If you were a teacher, what would you teach?

Purpose:

To provide financial support to organizations, events, and individuals pursuant to the promotion, education, and career development of women in the construction industry and to provide a means for NAWIC Fort Worth Chapter 1 to support the community involvement of its members.

SPOTLIGHT:

We are excited to welcome Jamie Greenway as the new President of NAWIC Chapter 1. Jamie serves as a Project Manager for Construction, North Texas Area, at Texas Materials and brings more than two decades of construction industry experience to her leadership role.

Jamie began her construction career in July 1999, starting in accounts payable. Through a willingness to embrace new opportunities, take on challenges, and continually expand her knowledge, she steadily advanced her career to her current position. Her professional journey is a testament to the value of lifelong learning and stepping outside of one's comfort zone.

Jamie's NAWIC journey began in January 2022, and from the very beginning she demonstrated the same spirit of growth and leadership that has defined her career. When asked if she would serve in a director role for the chapter, she simply said "yes." Since then, she has held several leadership positions within NAWIC, developing her confidence and strengthening her voice as a leader.

When asked what NAWIC has meant to her personally, Jamie's enthusiastic response is that the organization helped her "come out of her shell." Through the support, encouragement, and opportunities provided by NAWIC, she has grown both professionally and personally.

As Chapter President, Jamie hopes to increase member participation and engagement in the many exciting events planned for the year ahead. From longstanding favorites such as Block Kids, WIC Week, and the Ways & Means Golf Tournament to new opportunities like hosting the Spring Forum, she is eager to see members get involved and help shape the future of the chapter. Jamie believes that, as with any organization, members gain the most when they actively participate and invest in the experience.

We are grateful for Jamie's dedication and contributions to NAWIC over the years and look forward to her leadership as Chapter President. We are confident that her passion, experience, and commitment will help guide Chapter 1 toward another successful and rewarding year.

BUILD TO SAVE LIVES

THE HIDDEN SYSTEMS THAT PROTECT US

Fire sprinkler and life safety systems are essential to every building—but how well do we understand the role they play throughout design and construction?

Join us for an approachable look at the systems working behind the scenes to protect buildings, occupants, and first responders.

We'll explore how fire protection influences project planning, coordination, code compliance, and everyday jobsite decisions.

Whether you work in design, project management, estimating, field operations, or another area of construction, this presentation will help you better understand how each discipline contributes to creating safer buildings.
