About TammyRenee

TammyRenee is a transformational speaker, strategist, author, and creator of WAVE Philosophy™ (Wisdom, Awareness, Vision, and Energy). Her work explores a simple but powerful idea: What happens internally influences what happens externally.

Through stories, practical frameworks, and interactive experiences, TammyRenee helps leaders, entrepreneurs, teams, and customer-facing organizations become more aware of how presence, communication, relationships, emotional intelligence, and culture influence the experiences they create.

A global entrepreneur who has lived, worked, traveled, and built relationships across cultures, she brings real-world observations into her work—connecting human behavior with leadership, business, customer experience, personal growth, and opportunity.

If you can feel it, everyone can feel it.
