This Participant Agreement (the “Agreement”) is entered into between Breathe Function Thrive PLLC (the “Company” or “BFT”) and the individual (“You” or “Participant”) registering for or participating in one or more BFT courses, programs, trainings, mentorships, communities, group meetings, or other educational activities (collectively, the “Program”). The Program may include, but is not limited to, Breathing Nose to Toes™, Baby Jaws™, The CMORE Method – Powered by Mouth Magic™, Whole Body Balance™, CapnoCoach™, Cranial Nasal Optimization Techniques (CNOT™), and other courses, programs, or educational activities offered by BFT.

This Agreement describes the terms and conditions that apply to your participation in the Program and all related activities, whether delivered online, virtually, in person, or through a combination of formats. If you do not understand any of the terms of this Agreement, please contact the Company before acknowledging and accepting this Agreement at +1-385-722-4555 or Connect@BreatheFunctionThrive.com.

Program-Specific Terms

Individual Programs may have additional or different terms relating to matters such as eligibility, prerequisites, tuition and fees, refunds and cancellations, scheduling, access to online materials, required equipment or supplies, completion requirements, certificates, credentials, Trained badges, continuing education credit, or other Program-specific matters. Such terms may be provided in the Program description, application, registration or enrollment materials, order form, confirmation communications, or other written materials provided by the Company and are incorporated into this Agreement by reference. In the event of a direct conflict between this Agreement and written terms expressly applicable to a particular Program, the Program-specific terms shall govern with respect to that Program.

Participant's Responsibilities

We are honored to welcome you to this Program. By participating, you understand and agree that:

1. To promote a positive learning environment, you will share your ideas, thoughts, and questions in a way that engenders courtesy and respect and allows presenters and participants the same privilege. Should a Participant be verbally or physically abusive, degrading, derisive, or inappropriate during the Program, as determined by the Company, the Company may require the Participant to leave the Program and the Participant may forfeit tuition or fees paid, subject to applicable law and any Program-specific terms.
2. You fully understand this Program may include therapeutic and/or hands-on techniques which may require touching or being touched by the instructor or other participants. You have the right to decline participation and it is your responsibility to define and communicate your boundaries or opt out of and/or remove yourself from these activities. You also understand there are inherent risks associated with participating in any new activity and take full responsibility to confirm your readiness for participation with your health care providers.
3. The Company values the experience and satisfaction of all participants and strongly encourages participants to communicate any concerns or grievances directly with the Company at Connect@BreatheFunctionThrive.com and work with the Company to find resolution.
4. Unless otherwise specified in writing in the registration, enrollment, or purchase information for a particular Program, due to the non-refundable expenses associated with providing Programs and, where applicable, limited enrollment, 100% refunds of Program fees are available at least 60 days before the scheduled Program start date and 50% refunds are available at least 30 days before the scheduled Program start date. No refunds are available within 30 days of the scheduled Program start date. Programs without a scheduled start date, including certain online or self-paced Programs, may be subject to different refund or cancellation terms disclosed at the time of purchase or enrollment. In the event of an emergency, the Company may, in its sole discretion, allow Program fees to be applied toward a future BFT Program. The Company is not responsible for Participant travel or related expenses, including airfare, lodging, meals, transportation, or other costs.

5. Where online course materials are included in the Program, access is provided for one (1) year from the date of Program purchase or enrollment unless otherwise specified in writing by the Company. Continued access beyond one year may be offered by Breathe Function Thrive PLLC for an additional fee at the Company's sole discretion.
6. You will NOT PROMOTE YOUR OWN OR OTHER SERVICES, programs, summits, communities, social media accounts or groups, mentoring, trainings or other programs while a Participant in the Program unless agreed upon in writing by both parties.
7. To the extent applicable to Your profession, credentials, licensure, scope of practice, and the particular Program, the Company encourages You to use the Breathe Function Thrive tools, techniques, learning curriculum, and exercises You learn in the Program and apply them safely with Your INDIVIDUAL clients based on Your professional assessment and scope of practice as You work one-on-one with clients. The Company DOES NOT allow You to teach, train, modify, recreate, or redistribute in any form Breathe Function Thrive tools, techniques, presentations, handouts, teaching methods and analogies, or exercises taught in the Program with anyone other than Your individual clients, except as expressly authorized in writing by the Company. Sharing Program information with anyone other than Your individual clients being treated, including, but not limited to, through mentoring, co-treatment, shadowing programs, training, and educational offerings, in any form with any other party is strictly prohibited and may be injurious to the Company and its intellectual property interests. You will alert Breathe Function Thrive via email or phone if You are aware of any unauthorized use of the tools, techniques, and exercises learned in the Program.
8. If You are interested in teaching or licensing permissions beyond use with Your individual clients, including, but not limited to, educating, mentoring, training, co-treating, shadowing, or sharing with others, or wish to make modifications to this work, You must contact the Company at Connect@BreatheFunctionThrive.com to receive written permission. The Company's written permission is also required to record the Program in any manner, including, but not limited to, audio, video, or photographs. Any approved recordings or photographs shall remain subject to Section 12 below.
9. The Company may list or identify participants who successfully complete a Program on BFT website(s), professional directories, social media, or through other communications as having completed or been trained in the applicable BFT course or Program. Depending on the specific Program, participants may or may not receive a "Trained" badge, digital credential, certificate, or other designation recognizing successful completion. Any such designation applies only to the specific course or Program completed and does not constitute professional licensure, certification, or authorization to practice outside the scope of the Participant's applicable professional credentials or licensure. If You do not want to be included in any public listing or directory, You may opt out by contacting the Company in writing at connect@breathefunctionthrive.com.
10. Trademarks, service marks, trade names, logos, and other brand identifiers owned or used by Breathe Function Thrive PLLC (collectively, the "Mark(s)"), including, but not limited to, CNOT™, Tongue Wranglers®, Mouth Magic®, Baby Jaws™, Breathing Nose to Toes™, and BFT Trained badges, may not be used without authorization from the Company. You will not assert any ownership or other intellectual property rights in the Mark(s) or register any confusingly similar marks or logos with the United States Patent and Trademark Office or elsewhere. Similarly, You agree not to use any Company logos, badges, intellectual property, or images without written permission from the Company.

11. You understand that video, audio, photography, or other kinds of recording may take place so that the Company can review, improve, create, and promote the Program, including online or future versions of the Program. You have the right to opt out of being recorded. If You want to opt out of being recorded, You must notify the Company in writing before the applicable Program session begins and, as appropriate to the Program format, remain outside of the recording range, keep Your camera and/or microphone disabled, or follow other reasonable instructions provided by the Company to avoid being included in the recording. The Company will respect this decision and help facilitate it as reasonably practicable.
12. If, with the Company's authorization, You or any teaching assistant create or capture any photographs, video recordings, audio recordings, screenshots, or other media during the Program or related activities, You hereby assign and transfer to Breathe Function Thrive PLLC all rights, title, and interest, including all copyrights and other intellectual property rights, in and to such materials. Breathe Function Thrive PLLC shall have the unrestricted right to use, reproduce, edit, modify, publish, distribute, display, and create derivative works from such materials for educational, promotional, marketing, commercial, and business purposes in any media now known or later developed, without additional compensation or approval. You further agree to execute any additional documents reasonably requested by the Company to confirm or effectuate this assignment.
13. Breathe Function Thrive PLLC's decisions regarding the Program are final and made in the Company's sole discretion.
