

A NOTE FROM ONE OF YOUR CUSTOMERS

You should carry these.

Hi —

I shop here because you carry things I can't find just anywhere. So when I came across Habitudes™ — glazed stoneware planters, weathered steel, fountains and garden pieces — the first thing I thought was, I wish I could buy these from you.

They don't sell to the big box stores, and they don't sell online direct to people like me. They work only with independent garden centers and specialty shops — places like this one. Which means the only way I get to bring one home is if you decide to bring them in.

No pressure at all. I just wanted to put it in front of you, because I'd rather buy beautiful things from my neighborhood store than from a warehouse three states away.

Thanks for everything you do here.
