THE OFFER

Get the names before anyone hears the story.

People in a dispute want to tell the whole story on the first call. In litigation, that is a risk, because the other side may already be your client.

The agent answers in English and Spanish, captures every party for a conflict check before taking details, records whether a lawsuit has been served and when, marks served suits for same-day attorney review, and books the right attorney. It never gives legal advice.

ANSWER

A bilingual front door, 24/7

Voice, text, and web chat, answered in English and Spanish with a target of under a minute. Callers in other languages go to a person or a scheduled callback.

SORT

Every inquiry by matter type and urgency

Served with a lawsuit, bringing a commercial claim, business and partnership disputes, injunctions and emergencies, and judgments and collections. Urgent calls transfer live to the attorney on call, with a text alert if nobody picks up.

BOOK

Consults booked, conflicts checked

Collects every party name for your conflict check before any details, books the consultation, and runs reminders and reschedules.

BE FOUND

Named when clients ask AI

English and Spanish civil litigation pages that answer real questions, plus LegalService and Person schema for each attorney, so ChatGPT and Google can find and cite your firm by name.

The guardrails

- Conflicts before the story. Under Florida Bar Rule 4-1.18, information from a prospective client can create duties, and in some cases keep your firm off a matter, even if you never take the case.
- No case assessments. The agent never says whether a claim or defense is strong.
- Service dates flagged. Once a lawsuit is served, the time to respond is short.
- Evidence handled carefully. Documents and recordings are never collected over text or chat.
- Clearly a law firm. The agent says it is an assistant, never an attorney.
