Join us for an evening in Tuscany as we explore the many expressions of Sangiovese, Italy's most iconic grape. From bright and rustic to refined and age-worthy, Sangiovese reveals a remarkable range depending on terroir, tradition, and technique. This tasting will feature wines from renowned Tuscan Regions, highlighting how soil, climate, and winemaking shape the character of each bottle.....Salute!!

Your hosts, Edgar and the Yacht Club Chef have planned a delicious meal to compliment your taste journey through Tuscany.

Creamy Tuscan Chicken $28.00*pp with Tri-color Roasted Potatoes, Grilled Asparagus and a side salad

For those of you who prefer something else the dinner choices are:

Atlantic Salmon, pan-seared $28.00*pp topped with sundried tomato pesto, with creamy parmesan polenta, broccolini, micro basil & house salad

French Dip, in-house roasted prime rib $18.00*pp melted swiss cheese, au jus with french fries

Spring Cobb Salad, spring mix w/Grilled Chicken $18.00*pp radishes, avocado, snow peas, roasted tomatoes, cucumbers, hard boiled egg, bacon, feta

Note, this is our first event with a set menu for the evening and we will not be ordering from the Yacht Club Menu. Please email Rick Creange, rcc8182@gmail.com, with your dinner selection by April 28th or if you don't plan to eat respond with "no dinner". As always, you will pay the server the night of the tasting. tax & tip not included
