

LEAD TO CLIENT BLUEPRINT

RESOURCE USE & COPYRIGHT NOTICE

Thank you for purchasing the Priority Pipeline Pro - Lead to Client Blueprint. This Blueprint gives you a proven framework for moving seminar leads through an organized process - from the initial event to follow-up, appointments, and long-term client relationships.

A Quick Note About the Resources Included

The worksheets, guides, forms, checklists, charts, and other resources included in the Lead to Client Blueprint are provided for your individual business use only.

These materials are proprietary to Priority Pipeline Pro and are protected by copyright. Your purchase gives you permission to use the materials in your own business, but they may not be copied for distribution, shared with other agents or agencies, resold, republished, uploaded to shared resource libraries, or modified and distributed as your own materials.

The documents included with the Lead to Client Blueprint are provided in their finished, ready-to-use format.

Want editable versions you can customize for your own agency, branding, processes, and team?

Upgrade to the Complete Lead System

The Priority Pipeline Pro - Complete Lead System includes editable versions of the documents and resources, along with additional tools and implementation resources designed to help you put the entire system to work in your business.

Rather than simply showing you the process, the Complete Lead System gives you the tools to build, customize, and implement it.

Lead to Client Blueprint	Complete Lead System
Finished, ready-to-use resources	Editable, customizable resources
Framework and process guidance	Deeper implementation tools and resources
	All Workflows, emails, texts, forms, and more to implement the system
	1 hour strategy session to help get started

Thank you again for choosing Priority Pipeline Pro. We hope these resources help you create a more organized, consistent, and effective process for turning opportunities into clients.
