

What is the Gun Owner Supplement?

The Gun Owner Supplement provides access to a provider law firm for specific legal services to assist members if they are involved in a covered firearm incident.

Requirements and Eligibility

- Cannot be sold independent of the family legal plan.
- Only the primary member and member's spouse or domestic partner can use the plan benefits.
- Gun Owners Supplement is only available in English.

Cost, Payment and Enrollment Method

- $14.95 per month in addition to the Legal Plan monthly fee. Must have same payment method as the legal plan.
- Checking, savings, or credit card (no prepaid cards) or if added to a Group Authorization Card, plan can be billed with the group invoice.
- Enroll on WALS site, paper application, or group enrollment sites if added to the group.

Details to Know

- No dependent coverage. If person is 18 years of age and wants plan benefit coverage, they must purchase their own legal and gun owners supplement plans.
- Firearm incident is an incident where the member lawfully either discharges or displays a firearm for the purpose of using the firearm as a weapon to stop a threat, whether the member discharges the firearm or not.
- Services under this supplement are not applicable for on-duty firearm incidents and/or use of force by law enforcement and/or security officers.
- Does not cover any lawsuit, incident, criminal investigation, or prosecution arising from a firearm incident, by the member, against the member's current or former family member, household, or a dating relationship.

Gun Owner Related Benefits

- Advice related to using and carrying firearms
- 24/7 Emergency Access immediately after the use of a firearm in a firearm incident to stop a threat
- Trial Defense Services if member or member's spouse are named defendant in a covered criminal or civil lawsuit arising from a firearm incident
