

How Long Does it Take to Organize a Home?

There are many factors that determine how long it takes to organize one's home.

A few factors are:

The size of the home

How long you have lived in the home.

Whether anyone in the home is a compulsive buyer.

Whether anyone in the home has hoarding tendencies.

Whether you do the organizing on your own or with the support of a professional.

Whether there is inherited clutter in addition to the everyday objects that accumulate.

How many individuals live in the home, and each individual's age and temperament.

Whether individuals living in the home are motivated and willing to support the efforts.

Important note; The following are estimates from several highly respected professional organizers. They are educated estimates and are in no way a guarantee of how long a specific project will take in a particular home.
