

MAJOR ARCANA NUMEROLOGY

REFERENCE WORKSHEET

NO.	CARD NAME	NUMEROLOGICAL ASSOCIATION	MY PROMPTS/KEY WORDS
0	The Fool	Represents infinite potential and the void before creation. As both 0 and 22, it embodies the concept of wholeness and completion ($2+2=4$, stability) while simultaneously symbolizing new beginnings. Links to The World (21), forming a cyclical journey.
1	The Magician	Signifies new beginnings, initiative, and the power to manifest. It's the number of the individual and leadership. Connects to The Sun (19, also reduces to 1), representing different aspects of personal power and success.
2	High Priestess	Embodies duality, partnerships, and receptivity. It represents balance and hidden knowledge. Mirrors Justice (11), both dealing with equilibrium but from intuitive and logical perspectives respectively.
3	The Empress	Symbolizes creation, growth, and abundance. It's the number of expression and joy. Relates to The World (21, reduces to 3), connecting earthly and divine creation. Also links to The Hanged Man (12, reduces to 3) in its spiritual aspect.
4	The Emperor	Represents structure, stability, and worldly power. It's the number of foundations and material reality. Linked to Death (13, reduces to 4), both signifying fundamental changes in different realms.
5	The Hierophant	Signifies change, adaptation, and spiritual guidance. It's the number of dynamic energy and learning. Connects to Temperance (14, reduces to 5), both dealing with the integration of different elements.
6	The Lovers	Embodies harmony, love, and important choices. It's the number of balance and responsibility. Mirrors The Devil (15, reduces to 6), representing different aspects of relationships and attachments.
7	The Chariot	Represents victory, willpower, and overcoming obstacles. It's a number of spiritual significance and inner strength. Linked to The Tower (16, reduces to 7), both dealing with breakthroughs in different ways.
8	Strength	Symbolizes power, courage, and infinite potential (lemniscate symbol). It's the number of material mastery and cycles. Connects to The Star (17, reduces to 8), linking personal power with hope and inspiration.

MAJOR ARCANA NUMEROLOGY

REFERENCE WORKSHEET

NO.	CARD NAME	NUMEROLOGICAL ASSOCIATION	MY PROMPTS/KEY WORDS
9	The Hermit	Embodies wisdom, introspection, and completion of a cycle. It's the number of universal love and spiritual enlightenment. Relates to The Moon (18, reduces to 9), both dealing with inner journeys and intuition.
10	Wheel of Fortune	Represents cycles, karma, and completion leading to new beginnings. Reduces to 1, linking back to The Magician, symbolizing the cyclical nature of life and opportunities.
11	Justice	Signifies balance, truth, and karmic law. As a master number, it carries additional spiritual significance. Mirrors The High Priestess (2), balancing intuitive and rational judgment.
12	Hanged Man	Symbolizes sacrifice and new perspectives. Reduces to 3, connecting to The Empress, linking personal sacrifice with greater creation and growth.
13	Death	Represents transformation and rebirth. Reduces to 4, linking to The Emperor, suggesting that major changes lead to new stable foundations.
14	Temperance	Embodies balance, moderation, and the middle path. Reduces to 5, relating to The Hierophant, both dealing with the integration of opposing forces.
15	The Devil	Signifies materialism and bondage. Reduces to 6, mirroring The Lovers, representing different aspects of attachment and choice.
16	The Tower	Symbolizes sudden change and awakening. Reduces to 7, connecting to The Chariot, both representing breakthroughs and overcoming obstacles.
17	The Star	Represents hope, inspiration, and cosmic consciousness. Reduces to 8, linking to Strength, connecting inner power with universal energy.
18	The Moon	Embodies intuition and the subconscious. Reduces to 9, relating to The Hermit, both representing inner journeys and hidden wisdom.
19	The Sun	Signifies success, vitality, and enlightenment. Reduces to 1, connecting back to The Magician, representing the full expression of personal power.
20	Judgement	Symbolizes rebirth and inner calling. Reduces to 2, linking to The High Priestess, suggesting spiritual awakening and balance.

MAJOR ARCANA NUMEROLOGY

REFERENCE WORKSHEET

NO.	CARD NAME	NUMEROLOGICAL ASSOCIATION	MY PROMPTS/KEY WORDS
21	The World	Represents completion, fulfilment, and cosmic consciousness. Reduces to 3, relating to The Empress, symbolizing the culmination of the creative process. Links back to The Fool (0/22), completing the cycle.	