Welcome!

Engage With Compassion is one of the modules from The Behaviour Reset, my 6-step framework designed to help you understand children's behaviour, make informed decisions about how to support it, and adapt your approach when things don't go to plan.

This mini-course is all about understanding how to support behaviour responsively, by carefully holding expectations while honouring children's dignity. I'm not just sharing a whole range of responsive strategies with you; I'm also helping you build your thinking BEHIND the strategies, so you can use them with intention in your everyday practice. Alongside the whole of the Engage With Compassion module, you also have access to three carefully selected foundational lessons from Module One: Rethink Behaviour.

Like the full Behaviour Reset, this learning is grounded in a rights-affirming, neuro-affirming and trauma-informed approach, drawing on child development, neuroscience, lived experience, and current research and evidence.

If we haven't met before, I'm Danica (Dah-nee-cah), an early childhood educator, lecturer, mentor and consultant with 18 years of experience working alongside children, families and educators.

My strength lies in taking big, complex ideas about behaviour and translating them into practices educators can actually use - and because I'm still teaching young children myself, you can be sure I'm bringing you more than ideas that sound lovely on paper.

The 6-Step Framework

Engage With Compassion is step 4 of The Behaviour Reset Framework - a 6-step, evidence-informed approach that walks you through a framework of behaviour support, so you can enter hard moments with greater clarity, steadiness, and confidence.

Module One

Rethink Behaviour

Module 1 lays the foundation for the entire course, focusing on unlearning traditional behaviour myths and reframing how we understand behaviour, discipline, and our role as educators. This is the reset before the rebuild.

I've carefully selected three lessons from this module. These lessons form the foundations for your behaviour support.

You have access to:

Submodule 1: Unlearning Behaviour Myths

Lesson Four: Children's Rights + Behaviour
Familiarise yourself with a rights-affirming lens for behaviour support.

Submodule 2: How We Show Up in the Behaviour Space

Lesson Three: The Beliefs + Values Beneath Our Responses
Explore how your personal beliefs, values, and experiences shape your interpretation and responses.

Lesson Four: Warm Authority + Confident Leadership
Reimagine warm authority as a balance of connection and clarity.

Module Four

Engage With Compassion

Module 4 centres on responsive practice in the moment. This module builds confidence in the moment, helping educators stay grounded, compassionate, and effective when things get hard.

Submodule 1: The Foundations

Lesson One: The Fundamentals of Responsive Practice
Unpack the core principles that underpin responsive behaviour support, including safety, clarity, attunement, and adult leadership.

Lesson Two: What We Say (and How We Say It)
Consider the foundations of effective communication for both verbal and non-verbal communication.

Submodule 2: The Strategies

This sub-module introduces a range of relational, responsive strategies to support you in the moment.

- Easy Verbal Strategies
- Redirection + Replacement Behaviours
- Behavioural Momentum
- Boundaries + Supportive Actions
- Limits + Repeating Yourself Better
- Praise + Feedback
- Supporting Turn-taking
- Playfulness + Humour
- Guiding Social Interactions
- Meeting the Child Where They Are
- Co-regulation + Responding to big feelings (Guest workshop - Jess Demetrious of Raising Resilience)
- Easy Non-verbal Strategies
- De-escalating Explosive Outbursts (Guest workshop - Megan Brodie of Guiding Little Hearts)
- Staying Regulated in Hard Moments
