

Update - Nora's Attacker is Captured

Hey, Victor and Eileen Marks here and we want to thank you for your prayers and support of really the miracle capture of Nora's a horrible pedophile monster that we've been after for over a year and many of you have seen the video of this capture. Many of you have followed and been prayerfully and loving Nora through the attack. Those of you who don't know, Nora is an orphan in Cambodia where we have a safe house and she was attacked, beaten, stabbed, raped, battery acid poured on her, attempted murder and the guy actually cut her hand off and we had to do an extraction to get her out of a village place where she would have died.

Then we got her to an incredible hospital, three life-saving surgeries and then the guy when he found out, he's a wealthy businessman in that area, when he found out that she lived, he actually sent three people to kill her and our team lead there just, she was like, hey something doesn't feel right, can we move her? Even in this beautiful hospital, we moved her to a different floor and put guns on her and these guys were not able to get to her to kill her. So that's how intense this has been. It's been a long, drawn out legal deal to get an arrest warrant for them and to fight corruption and then find out who the good people are there in Cambodia and it's pretty amazing.

So really just, I mean we just finally, after putting together a specialized team using our Cambodian team and mixed with our American, it's a blessing and I don't know if I told you but when Nora saw the video, she literally cried for like 10 minutes. Holly said she just, she just held herself because it was such a relief, her attacker, her abuser, this monster who was threatening to kill her for over a year in a rehab, now he's done. Now a lot of you have asked the question, why don't y'all just smoke him or cut him up into a million pieces? Well, a couple of reasons.

One is, killing is easy. I mean wood chippers take care of a lot of stuff in different countries and you know what, our, was that too much? Sorry. I hear, so listen.

That's a visual. Sorry, maybe this is supposed to be edited. But listen, our goal was to catch and arrest him following our mandate to pursue and prosecute pedophiles and it is much better that he is paraded so masses will see him, not only in Cambodia, Southeast Asia, but the world and know that you can't just do whatever you want and think you're going to get away with it.

We want to instill and insert fear and a great amount of risk to those who are doing evil against children. So that's been our, that's been our purpose and our goal and our prayer. It's been, it's been long, arduous, expensive, but it's worth it.

And he will never hurt another person ever again. Now, I'm actually praying about whether to see him face to face so you can pray with me about that as well. And, um, some key leadership in the country of Cambodia who loves what we do and loves the partnership, uh, that we put together, uh, looking forward to a great visit.

So, uh, thank you. And we just wanted to give you a personal update. It's been a while.

Yes. And, um, thank you for your prayers. We always don't get to see the fruit of that, but we did.

And thank you because you helped us. You joined with us and we are so grateful for you. Thank you.

Don't ever think your prayers don't matter. They do. Uh, because even in the pursuit of this guy, uh, without any knowledge of him, knowing we were tracking him and closing in, he would do things that didn't make sense at all.

And, um, and he would slip out, squirt out, but he, he, so we just believe it was demonic. That's why we kept saying, please pray. And he actually got sick and was staying at a place other than his compound because his compound, we believe that landmines surrounding it and he had shooters.

So we were able to catch him outside of his compound because he got sick. And I think it was because of prayer and, uh, yeah, it's good. So God bless you guys.

Thanks for following us. If you like what we do, uh, share it with your friends, not on social media, but through email and about always, uh, thanks for your support. It matters and enables us to do what we do.

God bless you and love y'all.
