The Pump: A new idea that's going to fly.

Reebok brings you the world's first shoe with a fully adjustable fit. By squeezing the ball on the tongue, you pump up the areas around your ankle and foot that are critical to proper support. If you get too pumped, let some air out with the release valve on the ball. It's a personalized fit you control with your finger.

The Reebok Pump Shoe incorporates the ERS™ System for extra shock absorption, stability and reduced leg fatigue. You've never seen a shoe like this before. You've never felt like this before.

Interactive pump system for inflating shoe.
