GREETINGS AND CONFERENCE NEWS

Dear prayer partners,

I greet you with a thankful heart as we enjoy these summer days. There is much unrest in the world, but I keep coming back to the last line of the hymn "This Is My Father's World": "The Lord is King: let the heavens ring! God reigns; let earth be glad!" Thank you for partnering with us for so many years through Mountain of Praise church and ACPO.

Three conferences, one revival

Ed Wright shared some wonderful news from three recent gatherings: a church grand opening and dedication in Zimbabwe, and Pastors Conferences in Caia and Dondo, Mozambique. Each was a time of revival and teaching from God's Word with Papa Ed and Pastor Rego.

Pastor Rego opened with several hours of administration and instruction. Having leadership teams from across the region in one room is a rare chance to get everyone on the same page. While he taught, Ed prayed that the message would be received, understood and put into practice. The goal was to launch every leader into their calling and see the kingdom in action.

Between sessions, Ed found a quiet spot to seek the Lord. He then acted out scenes from Scripture to show the power of a testimony, just as Jesus used parables to teach.

On the final day, Pastor Rego honored the leaders, handed out Bibles and led a training session. Several women also received miraculous healing of their eyes.

Changes at Caia

The Caia conference center is going through a transition. Pastor Rego met with a group of leaders about it and will keep working with them on the center's oversight.

The long ride home

Then the Land Cruiser was loaded for the trip back to Dondo. Six people squeezed onto two facing benches in the back, along with luggage, chickens, doves and six melons Pastor Rego bought along the way. Bags of rice were strapped to the roof. There was no room to move, and the jungle roads were bumpy the whole way. The trip usually takes about 8 hours. This time it took 10½, but they made it!

I made this trip many times myself. As hard as it was, I always treasured those rides with my brothers and sisters.

The children in new uniforms ready to go to school. They thank everyone who helps support and care for them.

The children are saying thank you very much for the World Missionary Press coloring books, crayons and punch balloons.

The pictures below tell of the mission to orphans, which many of you have been so faithful in supporting.

The children are deeply grateful for the offer of bags to store and keep their clothes. They all say, "we are thankful for the help in providing us with bags; may the God of heaven and earth grant you blessing and grace forever, and bless your families and everything you do in life."

The orphans say a big thank you to Harvest Community Church VBS and to the many others who generously gave to make new beds possible. Here are Macany, Tony, and Joel learning from the carpenter to make the new beds.

I've been so privileged to be a part of God's mission as he calls us in James 1:27 to bless and care for orphans and widows and you are all a part of that with me.

Greeting you with shalom, Tanneken
