

BUCKETS OF MONEY

HOW TO KEEP MORE OF THE MONEY YOU MAKE

Are you making money... but still wondering where it went?

You work hard, serve your clients well, and bring money into your business. But when bills are paid or taxes are due, it can still feel like there is never enough left.

That does not mean you need to work more. It means your money needs a simple plan.

PAY YOURSELF FIRST - AND GIVE EVERY DOLLAR A PURPOSE

Buckets of Money shows you how to separate your weekly revenue into clear, purposeful accounts for taxes, salary, expenses, profit, and future goals.

Instead of hoping there will be money left at the end of the month, you'll begin deciding where your money goes before it disappears.

YOU ARE IN THE RIGHT PLACE IF...

You make money but do not always know where it goes, tax time feels stressful, or you want a simple financial routine that gives you more confidence and control.

COURSE BREAKDOWN

1. Change the Way You Think About Profit

For years, my belief was, "I do not need a budget. I just need to make more money." I learned that making more does not solve the problem when the money has no plan. Profit must be intentional, not whatever is left over.

2. Know Your Weekly Revenue

At the end of each week, total the revenue your business earned.

3. Create the Buckets Your Business Needs

Your categories and percentages should fit your business. A bookkeeper or accountant can help you choose the right tax percentage and review your numbers.

4. Build a Weekly Money Routine

Transfer money into each bucket every week.
Revisit the amounts as your revenue changes.

5. Start Your Profit Bucket

Over time, your profit bucket can help fund vacations, time off, investments, and the future you are building.
