

EQUIPPING WARRIORS IN HARM'S WAY

Additive Manufacturing (AM) Custom Off The Shelf™ (COTS)

EOD Gear delivers mission-driven additive manufacturing for programs where speed, precision, and execution are critical.

Our Custom Off The Shelf™ (COTS) model bridges the gap between prototype and deployment—combining commercial speed with mission-specific customization to deliver field-ready hardware fast.

Leveraging advanced composite additive manufacturing and in-house CNC machining, we execute:

- Rapid prototyping and iterative development
Hardware modification, tooling, and integration components
- Production from initial builds through scaled manufacturing

Applications include nose cones, tail fins, breaching tool holders, inert landmines, and shaped charge containers.

We specialize in complex geometries, lightweight structural components, and mission-adapted designs that are difficult or inefficient to produce using traditional methods. Our additive manufacturing capability enables rapid iteration while maintaining strength, durability, and repeatability in demanding environments.

This hybrid approach enables seamless transition from concept to production-ready parts while reducing lead times and program risk.

EOD Gear is structured to scale additive manufacturing capacity on demand, supporting programs from prototype through full-rate production.
