(h) I specifically acknowledge and agree that these clauses are not intended to be a general release, which would be limited under some state and local laws.

Personal Responsibility. You understand and agree that participation in the Retreat program involves deep inner work, including emotional, psychological, and spiritual exploration. The teachings, practices, and group processes may surface intense emotions, personal patterns, and unresolved experiences. You acknowledge that this is a normal and even essential part of the transformational journey.

You understand and agree that the Retreat is not a substitute for therapy, medical advice, or psychiatric care. If you are currently under the care of a medical or psychological professional, you agree to inform your provider of your participation in the Retreat and to obtain their approval before joining.

You take full responsibility for your mental, emotional, and physical well-being throughout the Program and agree to notify the Elevation team if you experience significant distress or believe you may require additional support. The Retreat is not designed to diagnose, treat, or cure any mental health condition or psychological disorder.

By participating, you affirm that you are in a stable enough state to engage in this type of work and that, should you experience emotional distress beyond the scope of the program, you will reach out to an appropriate professional.

You also agree not to attend any sessions under the influence of alcohol, recreational drugs, or mind-altering substances—including microdosing—for the duration of the Retreat.

Medical and Mental Health Disclosure. This Retreat includes deep meditative, emotional, and transformational practices that may bring up intense psychological experiences. By registering, you acknowledge that participation requires a stable mental and emotional state.

If you currently live with—or have a history of—any serious psychiatric or neurological condition (including but not limited to schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, borderline personality disorder, psychosis, or seizure disorders), you may only attend the Retreat with the express written approval of your licensed medical and mental health professionals. This includes confirmation that participation is appropriate and safe for you.

By signing this agreement, you affirm that:

- You have disclosed any relevant psychiatric or neurological conditions to your care providers.
- You have obtained full approval from your treating medical team to participate in the Retreat.
- You take full responsibility for your physical, emotional, and psychological well-being throughout the program.

Elevation and its staff are not liable for any medical, psychological, or emotional outcomes that may arise during or after the Retreat, regardless of whether any condition was disclosed. Any such matters must be managed directly with your licensed healthcare professionals.

Termination of Participation or Expulsion. Elevation reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to remove any Participant from the Retreat for any reason, including but not limited to: disruptive or harmful behavior, breach of confidentiality, non-payment, or failure to comply with Retreat guidelines or staff instructions.

Elevation reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to remove any participant from the retreat should Elevation feel that the level of deep inner work happening at the retreat is showing to be harmful for the participant's mental and emotional well being.

If a Participant is removed from the Retreat, they will not be eligible for any refund. Any remaining balance will remain due, and the Participant is fully responsible for completing all outstanding payments.

You acknowledge that if you are expelled from the Retreat for any reason, you will be solely responsible for all expenses you incur from the date of expulsion, including accommodations, cost of airfare from and to your point of origin. You will also be liable for all additional costs or expenses of the Non-profit organization arising out of your expulsion.

Limitation of Liability. The Non-profit organization is not responsible for the conduct of any Participant or other persons or entities. In no event shall the Non-profit organization or its affiliates, or any of their respective principals, officers, directors employees, representatives, agents or consultants (collectively, “Non-profit organization Representatives”), be liable to you or to any other person, for any loss or damage whatsoever, whether incidental, consequential, special, punitive, exemplary, general, direct or indirect, arising out of or relating to the Retreat.

Each Participant agrees to defend and indemnify Non-profit organization, Non-profit organization Representatives, and any of its affiliates (if applicable) and hold them harmless against any and all legal claims and demands, including attorney's fees, which may arise from or relate to the Retreat. Participants agree that the Non-profit organization shall be able to select its own legal counsel and may participate in its own defense, if so desired.

General Provisions. The Non-profit organization may assign its rights under this Agreement to any entity that acquires all or substantially all of the assets or equity of the Non-profit organization, or to any affiliate of the Non-profit organization. You agree that Florida law (regardless of conflicts of law principles) shall govern this Agreement, that any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive venue of the state courts in the State of Florida, Miami-Dade County, and that you submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state courts in the State of Florida, Miami-Dade County in connection with the Retreat or this Agreement. This Agreement, accepted upon applying to participate in the Retreat, contains the entire agreement between you and the Non-profit organization regarding participation in the Retreat.
