Our Privacy Policy

SECTIONS	LANGUAGE
PREAMBLE	This Privacy Policy describes the policies and procedures of BCGNC1, LLC, doing business as Boundless Capital Group ("Company") on the collection, use and disclosure of your information on or through https://boundlesscapitalgroup.com (the "Site") in connection with its digital course From Earner to Owner," (the "Digital Course"). Company will receive information about you: (i) if you register for its Digital Course. All defined terms not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in our Terms of Service for the Digital Course, available Terms of Service or the generally accepted English meaning in the United States.
PRIVACY POLICY SCOPE	This Privacy Policy covers Company's processing of Personal Data that Company collects when you are accessing and using its Digital Course. As used in this Privacy Policy, "Personal Data" means any information that can be used to individually identify a person, and "processing" generally covers actions that can be performed in connection with data such as collection, use, storage and disclosure. This Privacy Policy also covers Company's treatment of any Personal Data that Company and its vendors, sponsors, advertisers, and other business connections ("Business Associates") share with each other. This Privacy Policy does not apply to the practices of third parties, and their sites, services or applications that Company does not own or control, or to individuals that Company does not employ or manage ("Third Party(ies)"). While Company seeks to provide access only to those Third Parties that respect your privacy, Company cannot take responsibility for the content, actions or privacy policies of Third Parties. We encourage you to carefully review the privacy policies of any Third Parties you access. The Digital Course is intended for use by residents of the United States. Company is based in the United States. Certain Company vendors may transfer Personal Information outside of the United States and may process and/or store Personal Information outside of the United States to provide products and services to Company. By purchasing the Digital Course or using the Site, you consent to your Personal Information being transferred, processed, and stored within the United States as well as other jurisdictions where Company's vendors may transfer Personal Information.
DATA COLLECTED	Company and its vendors collect Personal Data about you when you provide such information directly to Company, when our Business Associates provide Personal Data about you, or when Personal Data about you is automatically collected in connection with your use of our Digital Course or Site.

	By providing Personal Data of others to Company, you represent that you have authority to do so. We disclaim responsibility for the information of others that you provide to us in the course of your use of the Digital Course. In order to collect payments from you, Company will use a third-party payment processor vendor to collect payment information from you. Company has included services from vendors into the Site and Digital Course, and those vendors provide us with Personal Data about you, such as the following: • Account information for Third-Party services: If you interact with a Third Party service when using our Digital Course, such as if you use a Third Party service to log-in to access the Digital Course or Site or if you share content from our Site through a Third Party social media service, the Third Party service may send Company information about you, such as information from your public profile, if the Third Party service and your account settings allow such sharing. The information Company will receive will depend on the policies and your account settings with the Third Party service. • Information from Companies advertising vendors: Company may receive information about you from some of its vendors who assist with marketing or promotional services related to how you interact with Company's Site and/or Digital Course. • Information from our vendors: We may receive information collected by vendors about your use of the Digital Course. For example, Company may use analytics vendors to analyze how you interact and engage with the Digital Course and any advertisements that are included in the Digital Course and/or on the Site, so Company can learn and make enhancements to offer you a better experience. Some of these vendors may use cookies, web beacons and other technologies to collect information about your use of the Digital Course and other websites. Company vendors may also help Company provide you with customer support and provide Company with information so that we may help you use Company's Digital Course and Site. Information Company may automatically collect when you use Company's Digital Course: Some Personal Data may be automatically collected when you use the Site and Digital Course, such as the following: • IP address • Device identifiers • Web browser information

SECTIONS	LANGUAGE
	• Page view statistics • Browsing history • Usage information and click tracking • Transaction information (e.g. transaction amount, date and time such transaction occurred) • Cookies and other tracking technologies (see below for more information) • Log data (e.g. access times, hardware and software information) Additional Information about Cookies: The Digital Course may use cookies and similar technologies such as pixel tags, web beacons, clear GIFs, and JavaScript (collectively, "Cookies") to enable Company's servers to recognize your web browser and tell Company how and when you visit and use the Digital Course and/or Site to analyze trends, learn about Company's user base and operate and improve the Digital Course and/or Site. Cookies can either be "session Cookies" or "persistent Cookies". Session Cookies are temporary Cookies that are stored on your device while you are visiting Company's Site or using the Digital Course, whereas "persistent Cookies" are stored on your device for a period of time after you leave Company's Site and/or Digital Course. Through these Cookies, Company and/or its vendors may collect information about your online activity after you leave the Site and/or the Digital Course. Your browser may offer you a "Do Not Track" or "DNT" option, which allows you to signal to operators of websites, and web applications, and services that you do not wish such operators to track certain of your online activities over time and across different websites. Because Company and/or it's vendors may collect browsing and persistent identifier data, the Digital Course may not support Do Not Track requests at this time, which means that Company may collect information about your online activity both while you are using its Site and/or Digital Course and after you leave the Site and/or Digital Course. Some Cookies are placed by a third party on your device and may provide information to Company and Third Parties about your browsing habits (such as your visits to the Site and/or Digital Course, the pages you have visited and the links and advertisements, if there are any, you have clicked). These Cookies can be used to determine whether certain Third-Party services are being used, to identify your interests, to retarget advertisements to you and to serve advertisements to you that Company or others believe are relevant to you. Company does not control Third-Party Cookies.

SECTIONS	LANGUAGE
	Company and/or its Business Associates may use the following types of Cookies: • Essential Cookies. Essential Cookies that are required for providing you with features or services that you have requested. For example, certain Cookies enable you to log into secure areas of Company's Site and access its Digital Course. Disabling these Cookies may make certain features and services unavailable. • Functionality Cookies. Functional Cookies are used to record your choices and settings regarding Company's Digital Course, maintain your preferences over time and recognize you when you return to our Digital Course. These Cookies help Company and its Business Associates personalize its content for you and remember your preferences. Performance/Analytical Cookies. Performance/Analytical Cookies allow Company to understand how visitors use its Site and Digital Course such as by collecting information about the number of visitors to the Site, what pages visitors view on the Site and/or Digital Course and how long visitors are viewing pages on the Site and/or Digital Course. • Retargeting/Advertising Cookies. Retargeting/Advertising Cookies collect data about your online activity and identify your interests so that Company and/or its Business Associates can provide advertising that it believes is relevant to you. For more information about this, please see the section below titled "More information about interest-based advertisements." You can decide whether or not to accept Cookies. One way you can do this is through your internet browser's settings. Most browsers have an option for turning off the Cookie feature, which will prevent your browser from accepting new Cookies, as well as (depending on the sophistication of your browser software) allow you to decide on acceptance of each new Cookie in a variety of ways. You can also delete all Cookies that are already on your computer. If you do this, however, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit the Site and some of the Digital Course functionalities may not work. More information about interest-based advertisements: • Company may serve advertisements, and also allow third party ad networks, including Third-Party ad servers, ad agencies, ad technology vendors and research firms, to serve advertisements through the Digital Course and/or the Site. These advertisements may be targeted to users who fit certain general profile categories or display certain preferences or behaviors ("Interest-Based Ads"). Information for Internet-Based Ads (including Personal Data) may be provided to Company by you or derived from the usage patterns of particular users on the Digital Course, Site and/or services of Third Parties. Such information may be gathered through tracking users' activities across time and unaffiliated properties. To accomplish this, Company and/or its vendors may deliver Cookies, including a file (known as a "web beacon") from an ad network to you through the Digital Course. Web beacons allow ad networks to provide anonymized, aggregated auditing, research and reporting for Company and its advertiser vendors. Web beacons also enable ad networks to serve targeted advertisements to you when you visit other websites. Web beacons allow ad networks to view, edit or set their own Cookies on your browser, just as if you had requested a web page from their site. We do not share your Personal Data with advertisers without your consent. However, if you click on or otherwise interact with an advertisement there is a possibility that the advertiser may place a Cookie in your browser and note that it meets the criteria they selected. We do not knowingly collect or solicit Personal Data from anyone under the age of 18. If you are under 18, please do not attempt to register for the Digital Course or send any Personal Data about yourself to Company. If Company learns that it has collected Personal Data from a child under age 18, it will delete that information as quickly as possible. If you believe that a child under 18 may have provided Company Personal Data, please contact Company at info@boundlesscapitalgroup.com.

PERSONAL DATA USE	Company may process Personal Data to operate, improve, understand and personalize its services. Company will process your Personal Data if it has a lawful basis for doing so. Lawful bases for processing include consent, contractual necessity and Company's "legitimate interests" or the legitimate interest of others. Periodically, Company may also need to process Personal Data to comply with a legal obligation, if it is necessary to protect the vital interests of you or other data subjects, or if it is necessary for a task carried out in the public interest.
DATA SHARING	Company may share Personal Data with Business Associates and agents who work on Company's behalf and provide Company with services related to the purposes described in this Privacy Policy or our Terms of Service. Company may also share Personal Data when necessary to complete a transaction initiated or authorized by you or provide you with a service you have requested. These parties also include:

	• Other users (where you post information publicly or as otherwise necessary to affect a transaction initiated or authorized by you through the Site and/or Digital Course) • Social media services (if you interact with them through your use of the Digital Course) • Business Associates who you access through the Site and/or Digital Course, including vendors • Other parties authorized by you Company may also share Personal Data when it believes it to be necessary to: • Comply with applicable law or respond to valid legal processes, including from law enforcement or other government agencies. • Protect its Digital Course purchasers and/or Site visitors • Maintain the security of the Company Site and/or Digital Course. As part of the Digital Course offering, you may email and other communications from Company. You acknowledge and agree that by availing yourself of the Digital Course and/or the Site, you allow Company to send you email and other communications that it determines, in its sole discretion, relate to your use of the Digital Course and/or the Site. Company may also share information with third parties when you give us consent to do so. Furthermore, if Company chooses to buy or sell assets, user information is typically one of the transferred business assets. Moreover, if Company, or substantially all of its assets, are acquired, or if Company goes out of business or enter bankruptcy, user information would be one of the assets that is transferred or acquired by a third party, and Company would share Personal Data with the party that is acquiring Company's assets. You acknowledge that such transfers may occur, and that any acquirer of Company and/or its assets may continue to use your Personal Data as set forth in this policy.
DATA RETENTION	Company may retain Personal Data about you for as long as you have an open account with Company or as otherwise necessary to provide you with access to the Digital Course and/or Site. In some cases, Company will retain Personal Data for longer, if doing so is necessary to comply with its legal obligations, resolve disputes or collect fees owed, or is otherwise permitted or required by applicable law, rule or regulation.
DATA SECURITY	Company seeks to protect Personal Data using appropriate technical and organizational measures based on the type of Personal Data and applicable processing activity. You need to prevent unauthorized access to your Account and Personal Data by selecting and protecting your password appropriately and limiting
