NLP Master Coach Practitioner

Get five Master-Level Board designations in ONE training! Use these proven technologies to accelerate your career or launch a new one. Our TranceForm graduates confidently guarantee their results in writing. That is a bold and lucrative statement!

This training is personally facilitated by Master Trainer Coach Robert Carbuccia, a Board Certified Trainer of NLP, Hypnosis, and Time Line Therapy®. In addition to his formal certifications, Rob is also a Huna practitioner and Initiator of Huna, bringing a unique depth of spiritual and energetic mastery to the work. He is part of the direct lineage of Tad James, one of the founding figures of modern NLP and Hypnosis.

In this program, Rob integrates advanced NLP and Hypnosis training with decades of study in ancient wisdom traditions—delivering transformational skills most sought after by today's leaders. His approach takes Quantum NLP™ skills to the next level, combining the latest mind-body sciences with timeless principles of leadership, communication, health, and transformation.

This training allows graduates to become Master-Level Board Certified and Designated through the TranceForm Standards & Certification Authority (TSCA), in alignment with both the American Board of NLP (ABNLP) and our close relationship with the International Federation of NLP (IFNLP).

The FasTrak® Experience

This two-week FasTrak® Program both reinstalls and expands upon the techniques of the one-week NLP Practitioner FasTrak®. Designed for busy professionals, it is delivered through a 14-day intensive practicum: the first week live and virtual, the second week in-person, with a hybrid option for those requiring flexibility.

The training maintains a high trainer-to-student ratio to ensure personalized support in a dynamic, fast-paced environment. You'll receive direct attention and immediate feedback to reinforce your success. Seats are extremely limited—reserve early!

Why TranceForm's NLP Master Practitioner Coach Training?

Today, there are unprecedented opportunities to earn a living while helping others achieve their goals as a Certified NLP Master Practitioner and Master NLP Coach. Master-level practitioners are in high demand worldwide—this is one of the most profitable investments you can make in your future. Many of our graduates who follow the business model shared in this course report having waiting lists of 3–6 weeks.

During this 14-day FasTrak® program, you will experience four personal breakthroughs while qualifying for five Board Certifications and Professional Designations:

1. NLP Master Practitioner
2. NLP Master Coach (Executive and Life)
3. Time Line Therapy® Master Practitioner
4. Master Hypnotherapist
5. Hypnotist

Certification, successful evaluations, passing the open-book board exam, and approval by the TranceForm Standards & Certification Authority (TSCA) will allow graduates to practice any or all of the above modalities. You may do this as an entrepreneur in your own business, or as an intrapreneur, leveraging these skills inside an organization.

Any group can say “Certified.” Board Certified and Designated means international recognition, credibility, and transferability of your credentials, giving you an edge in positioning yourself and your practice. Few training organizations worldwide can offer this.

Ongoing Support and TranceForm Advantages

Because our students come from diverse professional backgrounds, you’ll be immersed in a dynamic and energized environment that strengthens your ability to apply Master-Level techniques across multiple fields immediately upon graduation.

At TranceForm, we go far beyond the classroom:

- The TranceForm Accelerator®: a post-training growth system designed to help graduates build real businesses, create leverage, and accelerate results.
- Audit Privileges: Master Practitioner graduates may audit NLP Practitioner trainings at any time. Trainer’s Training graduates may audit both NLP Practitioner and NLP Master Practitioner. This ensures your skills are continually sharpened.
- Student Referral Network: Our practitioners actively refer clients to one another, creating a collaborative environment where success is multiplied.
- Graduate Community: Successful graduates join the TranceForm Graduate Network, where resources, masterminds, and referrals create lifelong support.

We are fully committed to your success—both in your personal breakthroughs and in building a thriving practice.
