1. Consent to Receive Text Messages

By providing your mobile number through an opt-in form, checkout, application, or other consent flow that references text messaging, you agree to receive recurring or non-recurring text messages from Tai Coaches LLC, which may include transactional or marketing messages depending on the opt-in context.

2. Message Frequency and Charges

Message frequency may vary. Message and data rates may apply according to your wireless plan and carrier terms.

3. Opt-Out and Help

You may opt out of future text messages at any time by replying STOP to a message, where supported. For assistance, reply HELP where supported or email support@taicoaches.com.

4. Consent Is Not a Condition of Purchase

Except where clearly disclosed otherwise for a specific operational reason, consent to receive marketing texts is not a condition of purchase.

5. Carrier and Delivery Limits

Carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages. Delivery may be limited by carrier availability, platform errors, device settings, or network conditions.

6. Revocation of Consent

Consumers must be able to revoke consent to receive unwanted marketing texts, and requests to stop texting should be honored. FCC materials emphasize the ability to stop unwanted texts, and recent FCC action confirms consumers may revoke consent by reasonable means.

7. Records of Consent

Tai Coaches LLC may maintain records relating to the date, time, source page, or mechanism of your text-message opt-in or opt-out for compliance, support, and dispute handling purposes.

8. Changes to Messaging Program

Tai Coaches LLC may modify, suspend, or discontinue mobile messaging programs at any time.
